Sample Questions (Q144-Q149):

NEW QUESTION # 144

The existence of many specialized departments within a company generally decreases the overall risk of fraud within the organization

- A. True
- B. False

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 145

Which of the following is TRUE regarding the internal audit function's reporting responsibilities pertaining to fraud?

- A. The internal audit function is permitted, but not required, to periodically report about the organization's fraud risks to senior management and the board of directors.
- B. The internal audit function should not disclose the results of its fraud audits to senior management or the board of directors in order to maintain independence.
- C. The internal audit function should discuss how and when to report fraud-related issues with senior management and the board of directors before such issues arise.
- D. The internal audit function is not permitted to communicate with the board of directors about fraud, as that is the responsibility of external auditors.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 146

Which of the following mechanisms can help alleviate the pressure on employees to commit fraud?

- A. Employee support programs
- B. Employee monitoring software
- C. Discipline policies
- D. Background check policies

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 147

Jane, a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), was hired to conduct a fraud examination at XYZ Company. Her examination did not reveal any conclusive evidence that fraud had occurred or was occurring. Consequently,

XYZ's management asked Jane to state in her official examination report that the company is free of fraud as a means of assuring the board of directors that the company's anti-fraud controls were effective. The ACFE Code of Professional Ethics prohibits Jane from complying with management's request

- A. False
- B. True

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 148

During an external audit, the audit team identifies evidence that management has Intentionally manipulated the organization's reported revenue amount. However, the amount of the resulting misstatement does not meet the quantitative materiality threshold for the audit. Which of the following is TRUE regarding this situation?

- A. The auditors should only consider the evidence if they can determine that the actions meet the legal definition of fraud.
- B. The auditors should reconsider the reliability of the audit evidence they have previously obtained.
- C. The auditors should assume that all audit evidence collected previously is unreliable and withdraw from the audit engagement.
- D. The auditors should regard the misstatement as immaterial to the audit because the omitted amount is less than the quantitative materiality threshold

Answer: B

Explanation:

* Implications of Management Manipulation:

* Intentional manipulation, even if quantitatively immaterial, raises concerns about the reliability of management representations and the integrity of audit evidence.

* Why Option A is Correct:

* Reassessing the reliability of previously obtained evidence ensures that the auditors address potential biases or systemic issues arising from management's actions.

* Analysis of Other Options:

* B. Withdrawing from the audit: Premature unless the issue is pervasive.

* C. Legal definition of fraud: Auditors are not required to meet this threshold for assessing evidence.

* D. Quantitative materiality: Misstatements can be qualitatively material if they indicate intentional manipulation.

* Conclusion: The auditors must reconsider the reliability of evidence due to the qualitative implications of management's actions.
