IIA Essentials of Internal Auditing Sample Questions (Q214-Q219):

NEW QUESTION # 214
An internal auditor is gathering evidence for an organization's internal audit engagement and requests a sample of vendor invoices from the organization. Which of the following is true regarding the reliability of this evidence?

- A. The invoices have low reliability.
- B. The invoices have zero reliability.
- C. The invoices have high reliability.
- D. The invoices have medium reliability.

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 215
During an audit of company expenses, the internal auditor performed a test using data analytics and identified a violation of the company's expenses policy. The auditor who discovered the issue considered it a potential fraudulent transaction and informed the chief financial officer (CFO). The CFO dismissed the concern because he did not understand the data analytics test that was performed and the transaction was of a low value. Given this situation, which skills or competencies should this internal auditor seek to improve?

- A. Knowledge of key IT risks and controls
- B. Knowledge and understanding of the company's expenses policy
- C. Soft skills such as communication and negotiation.
- D. Skills in evaluating the risk of fraud.

Answer: C

Explanation:
Given that the CFO dismissed the concern due to a lack of understanding of the data analytics test and the perceived insignificance of the transaction, the internal auditor should improve soft skills, specifically communication and negotiation. Enhancing these skills would help the auditor better explain the significance of findings and persuade management of the need to address such issues, regardless of transaction value.
