CWNP Certified Wireless Analysis Professional Sample Questions (Q74-Q79):

NEW QUESTION # 74

Which element do APs use to inform clients of the regulatory power limits and channel sets for the current region?

- A. Country Code
- B. Regulatory IE
- C. Supported Channels
- D. Supported Data Rates

Answer: A

Explanation:

The Country Code Information Element (IE) in Beacon and Probe Response frames informs clients about the regulatory domain, including allowed channels and transmit power limits for that region. This ensures client devices comply with local regulations.

NEW QUESTION # 75

Which one of the following portions of information is communicated by bits in the PHY Header?

- A. Data rate
- B. SNR
- C. Noise
- D. Signal strength

Answer: A

Explanation:

One of the information that is communicated by bits in the PHY header is data rate. Data rate is the speed at which data is transmitted or received over the wireless medium. Data rate depends on factors such as modulation, coding, channel width, spatial streams, and guard interval. Data rate is indicated by bits in different fields of the PHY header, depending on the type of PPDU (e.g., OFDM, HT, VHT, HE). The receiver uses these bits to determine how to decode and demodulate the rest of the PPDU. The other options are not correct, as they are not communicated by bits in the PHY header. SNR (Signal-to-Noise Ratio), noise, and signal strength are measured by the receiver based on its own capabilities and environment. ### NEW QUESTION # 76

What is the function of the PHY Preamble?

- A. To set the modulation method for the MPDU
- B. Carries the NDP used in Transmit Beamforming and MU-MIMO
- C. To terminate a conversation between transmitter and receiver
- D. Allows the receiver to detect and synchronize with the signal

Answer: D

Explanation:

The PHY preamble enables receivers to detect the presence of an incoming transmission and synchronize to it in time and frequency. It provides the necessary information for signal detection, automatic gain control adjustment, timing alignment, and channel estimation so that the receiver can correctly decode the remainder of the frame.

NEW QUESTION # 77

After investigating the WMM element in a Beacon Frame you notice the TXOP Limit for the Best Effort access category is set to 0. What does this indicate?

- A. The AP has no associated STAs using the Best Effort Access Category
- B. Only one frame can be transmitted in each Best Effort TXOP
- C. The frame is corrupted
- D. New associations will be rejected as the access point has no more capacity

Answer: B

Explanation:

A TXOP (Transmission Opportunity) limit of 0 for the Best Effort access category indicates that only a single frame can be transmitted per TXOP for that category. This setting limits frame bursting and ensures fair medium access across all traffic categories.

NEW QUESTION # 78

What should the To DS and From DS flags be set to in an Association Response frame?

- A. To DS = 1, From DS = 1
- B. To DS = 1, From DS = 0
- C. To DS = 0, From DS = 1
- D. To DS = 0, From DS = 0

Answer: C

Explanation:

The To DS and From DS flags should be set to 0 in an Association Response frame. An Association Response frame is a type of management frame that is transmitted by an AP to accept or reject an association request from a STA. The To DS (To Distribution System) and From DS (From Distribution System) flags are two bits in the Frame Control field of the MAC header that indicate whether a frame is destined for or originated from the DS (Distribution System), which is a system that connects multiple BSSs together. The To DS and From DS flags can have four possible combinations: 00, 01, 10, or 11. For an Association Response frame, which is sent from an AP to a STA within a BSS, both flags should be set to 0.
