NEW QUESTION # 386

What happens to the traffic flow when the Cisco ACI fabric has a stale endpoint entry for the destination endpoint?

- A. The leaf switch floods the traffic to the endpoint throughout the fabric.
- B. The leaf switch does not learn the source endpoint through data plane learning.
- C. The leaf switch drops the traffic that is destined to the endpoint.
- D. The leaf switch sends the traffic to the wrong destination leaf.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Because of this stale remote endpoint, any traffic from LEAF1 toward IP2 will fail, because LEAF1 sends packets to the wrong leaf.

This stale remote endpoint on LEAF1 needs to be manually cleared to resume communication.

The command syntax to manually clear a particular remote IP endpoint is shown here:

LEAF1# clear system internal epm endpoint key vrf <vrf-name> ip <ip-address>

NEW QUESTION # 387

A Solutions Architect is asked to design two data centers based on Cisco ACI technology that can extend L2/ L3, VXLAN, and network policy across locations. ACI Multi-Pod has been selected. Which two requirements must be considered in this design? (Choose two.)

- A. ACI underlay protocols, i.e. COOP, IS-IS and MP-BGP, spans across pods. Create QoS policies to make sure those protocols have higher priority.
- B. ACI Multi-Pod does not support Firewall Clusters across Pods. Firewall Clusters should always be local.
- C. Multi-Pod requires multiple APIC Controller Clusters, one per pod. Make sure those clusters can communicate to each other through a highly available connection.
- D. A single APIC Cluster is required in a Multi-Pod design. It is important to place the APIC Controllers in different locations in order to maximize redundancy and reliability.

NEW QUESTION # 389

How does Cisco ACI detect the IP address of a silent host that moved from one location to another without notifying a Cisco ACI leaf?

- A. Bounce entries are installed on the leaf switch.
- B. Endpoint announce messages are sent to COOP.
- C. ARP requests are flooded in the bridge domain.
- D. Silent hosts are detected by the ACI fabric.

Answer: C

Explanation:

In a Cisco ACI fabric, when a silent host moves from one location to another without notifying the ACI leaf switch (e.g., via Gratuitous ARP), the detection mechanism depends on how the bridge domain is configured. Specifically, ARP flooding can help detect such silent hosts.
