NEW QUESTION # 150

Which of the following is a best practice for implementing strong password policies within an organization?

- A. Requiring users to change their password every 90 days
- B. Storing passwords in clear text in a central database
- C. Allowing users to choose their own passwords, regardless of complexity
- D. Allowing users to reuse their previous passwords

Answer: A

Explanation:

Option 1: Incorrect. Allowing users to choose their own passwords, regardless of complexity, can lead to weak passwords that are easily guessed or cracked.

Option 2: Correct. Requiring users to change their password every 90 days helps to ensure that passwords are regularly updated and less likely to be compromised.

Option 3: Incorrect. Storing passwords in clear text in a central database is a security risk as it exposes the passwords to potential unauthorized access.

Option 4: Incorrect.

Allowing users to reuse their previous passwords increases the risk of unauthorized access as attackers may already be aware of the user's previous passwords.

NEW QUESTION # 151

What is smishing?

- A. A cyber attack where an attacker manipulates and deceives an individual to reveal sensitive information.

- D. A physical attack where an unauthorized person gains entry to a restricted area by following closely behind an authorized person.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Smishing, short for SMS phishing, is a social engineering attack that utilizes SMS or text messages to deceive individuals into disclosing sensitive information or performing certain actions. These messages often mimic legitimate sources, such as banks or service providers, and typically contain links or phone numbers that, when accessed or called, lead to malicious activities. Smishing takes advantage of the ubiquity of mobile devices and users' tendency to trust text messages.

- A. To protect against malware attacks
- B. To establish a secure remote connection over a public network
