NEW QUESTION # 81

The Lead Assessor interviews a network security specialist of an OSC. The incident monitoring report for the month shows that no security incidents were reported from OSC's external SOC service provider. This is provided as evidence for RA.L2-3.11.2: Scan for vulnerabilities in organizational systems and applications periodically and when new vulnerabilities affecting those systems and applications are identified. Based on this information, the Lead Assessor should conclude that the evidence is:

- A. inadequate because the OSC's service provider should be interviewed.
- B. inadequate because it is irrelevant to the practice.
- C. adequate because no security incidents were reported.
- D. adequate because it fits well for expected artifacts.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Understanding RA.L2-3.11.2: Vulnerability Scanning The RA.L2-3.11.2 practice requires organizations to:

Regularly scan for vulnerabilities in systems and applications.

Perform scans when new vulnerabilities are identified.

Use vulnerability scanning tools or services to proactively detect security weaknesses.

* An incident monitoring report tracks security incidents, not vulnerability scanning activities.

* Vulnerability scanning reports should include: # A list of vulnerabilities detected. # Remediation actions taken. # Scan frequency and schedule.

* The absence of reported security incidents does not confirm that vulnerability scans were performed.

Why Is an Incident Monitoring Report Irrelevant?

* A. Inadequate because it is irrelevant to the practice # Correct

* A lack of reported security incidents does not confirm that vulnerability scanning was performed.

* B. Adequate because it fits well for expected artifacts # Incorrect

* Incident monitoring reports are not expected artifacts for this control. Vulnerability scan reports are required instead.

* C. Adequate because no security incidents were reported # Incorrect

* The absence of incidents does not mean the OSC is performing vulnerability scanning. This is not valid evidence.

* D. Inadequate because the OSC's service provider should be interviewed # Incorrect

* While interviewing the provider may be useful, the main issue is that the provided evidence is irrelevant. The correct evidence (vulnerability scan reports) is missing.

Why is the Correct Answer "A. Inadequate because it is irrelevant to the practice"?

* NIST SP 800-171 (Requirement 3.11.2 - Vulnerability Scanning)

* Defines the requirement to scan for vulnerabilities periodically and when new threats emerge.

* CMMC Assessment Guide for Level 2

* Specifies that evidence for RA.L2-3.11.2 should include vulnerability scan reports, not incident monitoring reports.

* CMMC 2.0 Model Overview

* Confirms that organizations must proactively identify vulnerabilities through scanning, not just rely on incident detection.
