Cloudera CDP Data Engineer - Certification Exam Sample Questions (Q167-Q172):

NEW QUESTION # 167

What is the impact of query vectorization in Cloudera's Optimization Framework?

- A. It slows down query execution by adding complexity
- B. It enables the execution of SQL commands
- C. It encrypts query results for security
- D. It improves query performance by processing batches of rows together

Answer: D

Explanation:

Query vectorization improves performance by allowing multiple rows to be processed together as a batch, instead of one row at a time. This reduces CPU usage and improves throughput for query operations-Explain Plans

NEW QUESTION # 168

In Hive, what impact does setting the `hive.exec.dynamic.partition.mode` to `nonstrict` have on dynamic partitioning operations?

- A. It disables dynamic partitioning, requiring all partitions to be predefined.
- B. It allows the creation of new partitions dynamically based on the input data values.
- C. It restricts the insertion of data to existing partitions only.
- D. It enforces that at least one static partition be specified in the query.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Setting `hive.exec.dynamic.partition.mode` to `nonstrict` in Hive configuration allows for the creation of new partitions dynamically based on the input data values during data insertion operations. This mode removes the restriction that requires at least one static partition to be specified in the query, thereby providing greater flexibility in managing and organizing data into partitions based on the actual values encountered at runtime.

NEW QUESTION # 169

In the context of Spark, what is a potential downside of indiscriminate use of data caching, especially with the `MEMORY_AND_DISK` storage level?

- A. It may increase execution time due to overheads from frequent disk I/O operations.
- B. It can decrease network traffic by reducing the need for data shuffling.
- C. It can lead to reduced fault tolerance due to reliance on in-memory storage.
- D. It enhances data security by storing intermediate results in encrypted form.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Indiscriminate caching, especially with the `MEMORY_AND_DISK` storage level, can lead to increased execution time due to the overheads associated with frequent disk I/O operations. When the memory capacity is exceeded, data is spilled to disk, which can significantly slow down data access compared to in-memory operations. While this approach ensures that the data is not lost if it exceeds memory capacity, it introduces additional latency due to disk access times.

NEW QUESTION # 170

How does setting the `"priority_weight"` parameter in Airflow tasks influence the scheduler's behavior?

- A. It influences the order in which tasks are selected for execution across multiple DAGs competing for resources.
- B. It determines the order in which tasks are executed within the same DAG.
- C. It allocates more CPU and memory resources to tasks with higher priority weights.
- D. It sets a fixed time slot during which the task must be executed, overriding the scheduler's automatic timing.

Answer: A

Explanation:

The `"priority_weight"` parameter in Airflow tasks is used to influence the scheduler's decision-making when multiple tasks across different DAGs are competing for execution resources. Tasks with higher priority weights are more likely to be selected for execution first. This parameter does not affect the execution order of tasks within the same DAG or allocate more computational resources to tasks; it primarily affects the scheduler's prioritization of tasks across DAGs.

NEW QUESTION # 171

Which strategy is most effective for managing schema evolution in a big data application that relies on schema inference?

- A. Completely disabling schema inference and relying on static schemas
- B. Integrating schema registry services that track and manage schema versions
- C. Using a single version of the schema for all data, regardless of changes
- D. Manually updating the inferred schema for each data ingestion

Answer: B

Explanation:

Integrating schema registry services to track and manage schema versions is the most effective strategy for managing schema evolution in applications that rely on schema inference. Schema registries provide a centralized repository for schemas, enabling applications to handle changes in data structure over time gracefully. This approach ensures compatibility across different data versions and simplifies schema management, particularly in systems that must adapt to evolving data formats without disrupting ongoing data processing.
