CompTIA Cloud+ (2025) Sample Questions (Q86-Q91):

NEW QUESTION # 86
A company needs to deploy its own code directly in the cloud without provisioning additional infrastructure. Which of the following is the best cloud service model for the company to use?

- A. IaaS
- B. XaaS

- C. PaaS
- D. SaaS

Answer: C

Explanation:
Platform as a Service (PaaS) is the best cloud service model for deploying code directly in the cloud without provisioning additional infrastructure. PaaS provides a platform allowing customers to develop, run, and manage applications without the complexity of building and maintaining the infrastructure.
Reference: The PaaS model and its benefits for application deployment are covered under the Cloud Concepts domain in the CompTIA Cloud+ certification.

NEW QUESTION # 87
A healthcare provider contacts a MSP about moving an on-premises infrastructure to the cloud.
Which of the following requirements are most important for the MSP to consider when migrating this customer? (Choose two.)

- A. Availability
- B. Compliance
- C. Security
- D. Cost
- E. Storage
- F. Compute

Answer: B,C

Explanation:
Security is critical to protect sensitive healthcare data during and after migration.
Compliance ensures the cloud environment meets healthcare regulations such as HIPAA.

NEW QUESTION # 88
A company is developing a new web application that requires a relational database management system with minimal operational overhead. Which of the following should the company choose?

- A. A hybrid database setup
- B. A database migration service
- C. A managed SQL database on the cloud
- D. A database installed on a virtual machine

Answer: C

Explanation:
For a new web application that requires a relational database management system with minimal operational overhead, the company should choose a managed SQL database on the cloud.
Managed databases provide automated backups, patching, and other management tasks, reducing the administrative burden.

NEW QUESTION # 89
Users report being unable to access an application that uses TLS 1.1. The users are able to access other applications on the internet.
Which of the following is the most likely reason for this issue?

- A. Changes were made on the web server to address vulnerabilities.
- B. The security team modified user permissions.
- C. Privileged access was implemented.
- D. The firewall was modified.

Answer: A

Explanation:
If users are unable to access an application that uses TLS 1.1 but can access other internet applications, it is likely that changes were made on the web server to address vulnerabilities, such as disabling outdated and less secure protocols like TLS 1.1.

NEW QUESTION # 90
A company hosts various containerized applications for business uses. A client reports that one of its routine business applications fails to load the web-based login prompt hosted in the company cloud.

Click on each device and resource. Review the configurations, logs, and characteristics of each node in the architecture to diagnose the issue. Then, make the necessary changes to the WAF configuration to remediate the issue.

1005	Finance application 1	^https://webapp1[.]comptia[.]org/([0-9A-Za-z][0-9A-Za-z_-?])$	Allow	B
1006	Finance application 2	^https://webapp1[.]comptia[.]org/login[.]html$	Block	A
1007	Video application	^https://webapp2[.]comptia[.]org/video/stream$	Allow	A

Answer:

Explanation:
See the Explanation below for solution
Explanation:
From the image, it's noticeable that some finance application rules are set to "Block" traffic. If the client's issue is with a finance-related application not loading the login prompt, these rules could be the cause.
The rule with ID 1005, labeled "Finance application 1", is configured to allow access to "webapp1" for finance-related paths.
However, rule 1006, labeled "Finance application 2", is set to block access to "webapp1" for login-related paths.
To remediate the issue based on the WAF configuration you have provided, you would want to:
Ensure that the correct paths to the finance application are allowed through the WAF.
Modify any rules that are incorrectly blocking access to the application.
If the client's problem is specifically with the login prompt, then rule 1006 seems the most likely culprit. Changing the action from "Block" to "Allow" for rule 1006 could potentially resolve the client's issue. The rule should be carefully reviewed and updated to ensure legitimate traffic is not being blocked while still protecting against unauthorized access.

......

In the present situation, you will find companies laying off their employees without any notice or prior information. They are just receiving an email and the next moment they have no access to the company network. So to avoid all this, you have to keep yourself updated with the new version of technologies and applications. You have to become one of CompTIA Cloud+ (2025) (CV0-004) certification holders who survived the laying off situation and are still in a great position in their company. You cannot afford to lose it when you need your job the most.
