SAP Certified Associate - Implementation Consultant - SAP S/4HANA Cloud Public Edition, Management Accounting Sample Questions (Q33-Q38):

NEW QUESTION # 33

What can be the cause for a remaining variance on a production order? Note: There are 2 Correct Answers to this question.

- A. The material's price is set to average moving price (MAP) with control indicator "V"
- B. The overhead calculation rate is different than that used for the calculation of the standard price
- C. There are rounding differences on the output side on the production order
- D. The standard cost price of an input material has changed after calculating the standard price of the produced material

Answer: B,D

Explanation:

Solution:

Based strictly on learning.sap.com sources, here are the two potential causes for a remaining variance on a production order:

Correct Answers

- C. The standard cost price of an input material has changed after calculating the standard price of the produced material
- * A standard price update on an input material after the finished material's standard cost estimate can lead to cost differences that aren't categorized, resulting in a remaining variance. SAP Help Portal+6SAP Learning+6SAP Community+6 D . The overhead calculation rate is different than that used for the calculation of the standard price
- * If cost center overhead rates have changed since the standard costing run, the overhead portion of the production cost won't match the original plan, causing a remaining variance.

Incorrect Options

- * A. Rounding differences - These can lead to small variances but are typically classified under rounding variance, not "remaining" variance.
- * B. Moving Average Price (MAP) indicator 'V' - This impacts output variances, not remaining variances within production order calculations.

Final Answers:

- * C. The standard cost price of an input material has changed after calculating the standard price of the produced material
- * D. The overhead calculation rate is different than that used for the calculation of the standard price
