Certification Path

Once you ace the CMQ-OE Exam, you may want to gain more certificates endorsed by the same vendor. Thus, you can visit their site and find the designation that currently represents more interest for you. Just so you know, the most popular certificates by this vendor are the Certified Software Quality Engineer and the Master Black Belt.

CMQ/OE Exam Structure

The ASQ CMQ/OE test includes different multiple-choice questions that will assess their knowledge of the topics from the exam syllabus. The number of items, though, differs based on the way the exam is delivered. Therefore, if the candidates take a computer-delivered test, they will have to solve 180 questions. This type of exam is delivered in the English language only. Plus, out of the total number of questions, only 165 are scored. The remaining ones are unscored queries and they are used for statistical purposes. The total time allotted for the candidates will be 4 hours and 18 minutes. If the examinees want to take this test with paper and pencil, then they will have to solve 165 inquiries only. Still, the type of questions remains multiple-choice. As for the allotted time, the candidates will have only four hours to answer as many questions as possible. Notably, this type of validation is delivered in both English and Mandarin. Another important aspect to mention is that all exams are open books. This means that the examinees can bring and use any type of materials they want.

Prerequisites for CMQ-OE Certification Exam

The vendor has specific prerequisites that candidates are required to meet to be eligible for the CMQ-OE exam. Thus, candidates are required to show 10 years of full-time work experience in at least one area of the Certified Manager of Quality/Organizational Excellence Body of Knowledge. Out of these 10 years of experience, candidates must have 5 years of experience in a decision-making role. Note ASQ defines a decision-making role as a position where the individual has the power to define, implement, or manage projects and processes and be accountable for the results. An individual already accredited by this certification vendor as a quality auditor, software quality engineer, or quality engineer can use the same experience as a pre-requisite for the CMQ-OE test. To add more, a portion of the required 10-year experience will be waived off by ASQ if the individual has an educational background. So, a diploma from a technical school will be eligible for a 1-year waiver, an associate degree for a two-year waiver, a bachelor's degree for four years, and a master's or doctorate for five years.

ASQ Certified Manager of Quality/Organizational Excellence Exam Sample Questions (Q412-Q417):

NEW QUESTION # 412

Two human resource functions that typically are shared with other organizational components are:

- A. Unemployment and relocation administration.
- B. Staffing and training
- C. Union contract negotiation and OSHA compliance assessment.
- D. Compensation and benefits administration.

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 413

Which of the following training evaluation methods is easiest to perform but has the most limited value?

- A. Behavior
- B. Learning
- C. Reaction
- D. Results

Answer: C

Explanation:

The Reaction evaluation method assesses participants' immediate response to training, such as their satisfaction with the training experience. While it is relatively easy to collect feedback through surveys or questionnaires, this method provides limited insight into the effectiveness of the training in terms of learning outcomes or behavior change. It primarily captures subjective opinions and feelings rather than objective performance improvements. Therefore, while it serves as a quick gauge of participants' reactions, it does not provide substantial evidence of training impact or organizational improvement¹.

- A. Low relationship; Low task
- B. High task; low relationship
- C. High relationship; Low task
- D. High task; High relationship

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 415

The house of quality pictured above was designed for product planning and development to specific customer wants and needs, which of the following sections would contain the planning matrix that lists market research and strategic planning?

- A. 0
- B. 1
- C. 2
- D. 3

Answer: D

Explanation:

The House of Quality (HOQ) is a product planning matrix used to show how customer requirements relate directly to the ways and methods companies can use to achieve those requirements. It resembles the outline of a house and is created using technical and competitive benchmarking data. The HOQ is considered the primary tool during quality function deployment (QFD) to facilitate group decision-making.

Here's how the sections of the House of Quality correspond to different aspects:

* Section 1: This is the large rectangle at the center bottom. It represents customer requirements or needs.

* Section 2: Located to the right of section 1, this area contains the planning matrix. It lists market research and strategic planning, linking customer requirements to specific design elements and technical specifications.

* Section 3: A square attached to the top side of section 1, it represents technical benchmarking data. It assesses how well both your organization and competitors fulfill customer needs in terms of design requirements.

* Section 4: Another square, smaller than section 3, attached to its top side. It represents competitive benchmarking, comparing your company against leading competitors.

* Section 5: Forms an upward-pointing triangle attached to the top side of section 4. It reflects conflict resolution among product requirements.

* Section 6: A long rectangle extending from the left side of section 1 and under sections 3 and 4. It represents the technical specifications and design elements needed to meet customer requirements.

In summary, the planning matrix for market research and strategic planning is found in Section 2 of the House of Quality.
