Huawei HCIP-Access V2.5 Sample Questions (Q90-Q95):

NEW QUESTION # 90

(Radio) In the ACL, if you need to filter packets by source IP, destination IP, and port number, the ACL number template to create is:

- A. 3000-3999
- B. 4000-4999
- C. 2000-2999
- D. 5000-5999

Answer: A

Explanation:

On Huawei VRP, Advanced IPv4 ACLs (which can match source IP, destination IP, and L4 port numbers) use the 3000-3999 numbering range.

2000-2999 = Basic IPv4 ACL (matches source IP only).

3000-3999 = Advanced IPv4 ACL (matches source/destination IP, protocol, ports).

4000-4999 = Layer 2 (MAC) ACL.

5000-5999 = User-defined/other ranges, not the standard advanced IPv4 range.

Therefore, to match IPs and ports, select 3000-3999.

NEW QUESTION # 91

If the ONT zero-touch provisioning function is enabled on eSight, you can configure multiple service profiles. Which parameters can be set on the Multi-Service Profile Management tab page?

- A. Voice VLAN
- B. ONU type
- C. Number of Ethernet ports
- D. VLAN
- E. Default VLAN

Answer: A,D

Explanation:

In eSight's ONT Zero-Touch workflow, multi-service profiles define service parameters delivered to ONTs- primarily service VLANs such as Internet/Data VLAN, Voice VLAN, and IPTV/Multicast VLAN with related QoS. Hardware attributes like ONU type or Ethernet port count are part of the device/ONT profile, not the multi-service profile. A generic "Default VLAN" parameter is not used here; instead, explicit service VLANs are specified (for example, data VLAN and voice VLAN).

NEW QUESTION # 92

Which of the following H.248 commands can be sent by the MG?

- A. AuditValue
- B. Notify
- C. Add
- D. ServiceChange

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 93

Which of the following is a RADIUS feature?

- A. You can adjust the fields to be encrypted in packets according to user requirements.
- B. RADIUS has reliable transmission.
- C. The same transmission protocol as HWTACACS is used.
- D. After a user passes authentication, the returned message is different from that returned by the HWTACACS server.

Answer: D

Explanation:

A: Incorrect - RADIUS typically uses UDP (1812/1813), while HWTACACS/TACACS+ uses TCP (port 49).

B: Incorrect - In RADIUS, only the user-password attribute is encrypted; fields are not selectively encrypted by user choice. TACACS+ can encrypt the entire payload.

D: Incorrect - Because RADIUS uses UDP, transport is not inherently reliable.

C: Correct - RADIUS and HWTACACS differ in message structure and returned attributes after authentication (e.g., RADIUS attribute-value pairs for access control/QoS/VLAN vs. HWTACACS command /privilege oriented responses). Thus the returned content/format differs between the two.

NEW QUESTION # 94

The solutions to MAC address spoofing include:

- A. Automatically bind MAC addresses.
- B. Limit the number of user MAC addresses that can be learned.
- C. Replace a user terminal.
- D. Manually configure a static MAC address.

Answer: A,B,D

Explanation:

Huawei access security recommends limiting MAC learn counts per port/VLAN, and using anti-MAC- spoofing bindings: either automatic (dynamic) bindings generated by the system or manual static MAC bindings to the service/port. Simply replacing a terminal is not a network-side mitigation method and is not listed as a protection measure.
