Chapter 01: Health: A Community View Nies: Community/Public Health Nursing, 8th Edition

MULTIPLE CHOICE

1. Which best describes the primary reason that Americans are concerned about health care?
  - a. Politicians are discussing how to improve health care.
  - b. The media has provided mixed messages about the health care system.
  - c. Our national health care costs keep increasing.
  - d. The new health care system offers free services to Americans.

ANS: C

The primary reason for the focus on health care is the constantly increasing costs, which cannot be sustained. The costs of caring for the sick accounted for the majority of escalating health care dollars, which increased from 5.7% of the gross domestic product in 1965 to 17.8% in 2015. Politicians and the media both influence Americans' perceptions about health care; however, they are not the primary reason why Americans are concerned. The new health care system will change the health care access and availability, but will not necessarily be offering any free services to Americans.

DIF: Cognitive Level: Understand (Comprehension)

2. A nurse has begun to lobby with politicians for changes to the health care system. Why is his involvement important?
  - a. Nurses, as central characters in several popular TV series, are currently very visible in American media.
  - b. Nurses are primarily responsible for managing the various units in our health care system.
  - c. Nurses are the largest segment of health care providers.
  - d. Nurses are the only group that is employed both inside and outside of hospitals.

ANS: C

As the largest segment of health care providers, nurses are informed about the current health care system and all the problems that result from people not seeking care until they are desperately ill. Nurses, as the American Nurses Association (ANA) emphasize, usually believe that health care is a right, not a privilege. Therefore, nurses, whose work is central to our current health care delivery system, can also be instrumental in working politically to create a health care delivery system that will meet health needs. While nurses are in several current TV series and are employed both inside and outside of hospitals, physicians and other health care providers are as well. Nurses are often managers, but managers often have other backgrounds, such as business administration.

DIF: Cognitive Level: Understand (Comprehension)

3. What conclusion can be drawn from examining where nurses are employed?
  - a. There is a trend toward consolidation of health care into large central medical centers.
  - b. There is an increased emphasis on community-based health care.
  - c. There is an obvious need to decrease health care costs by cutting positions.
  - d. Managed care organizations (MCOs) are employing nurses to improve customer

CompTIA DataSys+ Certification Exam Sample Questions (Q58-Q63):

NEW QUESTION # 58

Which of the following statements is TRUNCATE an example of?

- A. DCL statement
- B. DML statement
- C. MCL statement
- D. DDL statement

Answer: D

Explanation:

TRUNCATE is a Data Definition Language (DDL) statement because it modifies the structure of the table by quickly removing all rows without logging individual row deletions.

NEW QUESTION # 59

A data scientist recently joined a company and needs to review the data before building models.

Which of the following tools can the data scientist use to find the most extensive details?

- A. Unified modeling language
- B. Data dictionary
- C. Maintenance documentation
- D. Entity relationship diagram

Answer: B

Explanation:

A data dictionary provides detailed metadata about data elements, including definitions, formats, and relationships, helping the data scientist understand the dataset comprehensively.

NEW QUESTION # 60

An automated script is using common passwords to gain access to a remote system. Which of the following attacks is being performed?

- A. Brute-force
- B. SQL injection
- C. DoS
- D. Phishing

Answer: A

Explanation:

The attack that is being performed is brute-force. A brute-force attack is a type of attack that tries to guess a password or a key by systematically trying all possible combinations of characters or values until the correct one is found. A brute-force attack can use common passwords, such as

"123456", "password", or "qwerty", as well as dictionaries, word lists, or patterns to speed up the process. A brute-force attack can target a remote system, such as a web server, an email account, or a network device, and gain unauthorized access to its data or resources. The other options are either different types of attacks or not related to password guessing. For example, a DoS, or Denial-of-Service, attack is a type of attack that floods a system with requests or traffic to overwhelm its capacity and prevent legitimate users from accessing it; an SQL injection attack is a type of attack that inserts malicious SQL statements into an input field or parameter of a web application to manipulate or compromise the underlying database; a phishing attack is a type of attack that sends fraudulent emails or messages that appear to come from a trusted source to trick users into revealing their personal or financial information.

NEW QUESTION # 61

Which of the following is an advantage of creating indexes?

- A. To help with space allocation
- B. To reduce memory
- C. To update the query plan
- D. To provide quick and efficient access to data

Answer: D

Explanation:

The advantage of creating indexes is to provide quick and efficient access to data. An index is a data structure that stores the values of one or more columns of a table in a sorted order, along with pointers to the corresponding rows in the table. An index helps to speed up queries that search, filter, sort, or join data based on the indexed columns, as it reduces the number of disk accesses or scans required to locate the desired data. An index also helps to enforce uniqueness or referential integrity constraints on the indexed columns. The other options are either not true or not relevant for this purpose. For example, an index does not help with space allocation, as it consumes additional space in the database; an index does not reduce memory, as it may use memory for caching or buffering purposes; an index does not update the query plan, as it is an input or a factor for the query optimizer to generate the query plan. Reference: CompTIA DataSys+ Course Outline, Domain 1.0 Database Fundamentals, Objective 1.2 Given a scenario, execute database tasks using scripting and programming languages.

NEW QUESTION # 62

Which of the following database structures is designed to store images, records, video, and audio in a single repository?

- A. Linear
- B. Hierarchical
- C. NoSQL
- D. Entity-relationship

Answer: C

Explanation:

NoSQL databases are designed to store and manage diverse data types such as images, video, audio, and records in a flexible, single repository without fixed schemas.
