- See course schedule for exam dates.
- You may not copy any of the exam questions or answers for any reason.

The exam covers content from the PowerPoint slides, exercises, and lecture (if any). Some questions are fact/knowledge based, such as the definition of a term. Many questions will require calculations.

The exam questions will focus on the following topics:

Chapter 1:

- Know the two primary functions of financial accounting.
- Given a list of items for which cash was paid, be able to compute the total amount of cash paid for operating activities, investing activities, or financing activities. To do this, you need to be able to classify business activities as either operating activities, investing activities, or financing activities.
- Know the basic accounting equation and how to solve for an unknown element of this equation. For example, given a company's assets, liabilities, and Retained Earnings, be able to compute the balance of Common Stock.
- Know which accounts are included on the income statement, statement of stockholders' equity, and balance sheet. Consider reviewing Problem 1-3A and Problem 1-3B. You will not need to write out the financial statements on the exam, but you will be required to compute—using the given information in the problem—
