質問 # 27

What is one advantage of using stock transport orders instead of stock transfers?

- A. The process of goods issue and goods receipt is monitored using the purchase order (PO) history
- B. The ownership transfer and carrier delivery costs are delayed until goods receipt
- C. The purchase orders that are generated by MRP can be converted to stock transport orders
- D. Goods movements occur in one step, only at goods issue.

正解: A

解説:

* Stock Transport Orders: Stock transport orders (STOs) are used within an organization to transfer stock from one plant to another. This process involves a goods issue at the sending plant and a goods receipt at the receiving plant.

* Advantage of STOs:

* Monitoring and Transparency: The use of PO history in STOs allows for detailed monitoring of the goods issue and goods receipt processes. This enhances transparency and traceability in the stock transfer process.

* Control and Documentation: STOs provide better control over internal stock transfers, with documentation through the purchase order system, which is beneficial for audit trails and internal controls.

* Implementation Steps:

* Create STO: In the SAP system, create a stock transport order from the supplying plant to the receiving plant.

* Monitor Goods Issue and Receipt: Use the PO history to monitor the goods issue at the sending plant and the goods receipt at the receiving plant, ensuring the process is completed as intended.
