IIBA Entry Certificate in Business Analysis (ECBA) Sample Questions (Q117-Q122):

NEW QUESTION # 117

If inconsistencies arise between different elicitation results, the business analyst (BA) should:

- A. report them to the project manager.
- B. escalate them to the business sponsor.
- C. resolve them through collaboration.
- D. reconcile them through experience.

Answer: C

Explanation:

The BABOK Guide emphasizes the importance of collaboration when inconsistencies are found between elicitation results. It suggests that business analysts should work together with stakeholders to resolve variations identified in the results. This collaborative approach is essential for ensuring that the information is consistent and accurately represented, and it helps to uncover any discrepancies or ambiguities early in the process, which can prevent costly errors or delays later on.
