ACFE Certified Fraud Examiner - Investigation Exam Sample Questions (Q63-Q68):

NEW QUESTION # 63

Tyson, a fraud examiner, is planning an interview with Brianna, the girlfriend of the central suspect in Tyson's investigation. Previous interviews with others have revealed that Brianna tends to be very protective of her boyfriend. How should Tyson approach the interview with Brianna?

- A. Avoid interviewing Brianna if possible due to Brianna's potential volatility.
- B. Conduct the interview with as little notice as possible so Brianna will be unprepared
- C. Ask Brianna when she would prefer to be interviewed in an effort to provoke cooperation.
- D. Provide Brianna with advance notice prior to the interview to inhibit resentment.

Answer: B

Explanation:

According to the CFE Prep - Investigations study guide:

"It is recommended that any witnesses who are considered potentially volatile be interviewed without advance notice. Surprise should be employed in any interview that is considered potentially volatile. In many instances, the potentially volatile respondent is unaware that he is going to be questioned, and will therefore be unprepared. If the interview is not conducted by surprise, the interviewer runs the risk of the respondent not showing up, showing up with a witness, or being present with counsel. A target's friends, relatives, and romantic interests often make for a difficult interview. They perceive that the fraud examiner is deliberately targeting someone close to them."

#Interpretation for this scenario:

- * Brianna is described as very protective of her boyfriend, making her a potentially volatile witness.
- * Best practice is to avoid giving her advance notice (which might increase hostility, resentment, or allow preparation).
- * Conducting the interview with little or no notice reduces the risk of interference, ensures she is unprepared, and prevents her from appearing with legal counsel or allies.

NEW QUESTION # 64

Jana, the controller of XYZ Company, notices that the company's hotel expenses increased substantially from the prior year. She wants to check to see if this increase is reasonable by comparing hotel expenses from both years to the number of days XYZ's employees traveled. Which of the following data analysis functions would be the MOST USEFUL in helping Jana analyze these two variables?

- A. Verifying multiples of a number
- B. Duplicate testing
- C. Benford's Law analysis
- D. Correlation analysis

Answer: D

Explanation:

The 2014 International Fraud Examiners Manual provides:

"Fraud examiners can use a correlation analysis to determine the relationships between different variables in raw data... For example, there should be a strong correlation between the independent and dependent variables because there is a direct relationship between them. Hotel costs should increase as the number of days travelled increases." CFE Prep - Investigations echoes this:

"Using the correlation analysis function, fraud examiners can determine the relationships between different variables in the raw data. For example...Hotel costs should increase as the number of days travelled increases." Thus, the most useful analysis is Correlation analysis.

NEW QUESTION # 65

Baker, a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE), contacts Dierdre for the purpose of conducting a routine, information-gathering interview. Dierdre expresses a desire that her coworker, Matthew, whom Baker also plans to interview, be interviewed at the same time Baker should:

- A. Interview Dierdre and Matthew at the same time by himself
- B. Allow Matthew to be present as a silent observer.
- C. Interview Dierdre and Matthew at the same time, but bring in a second interviewer
- D. Interview Dierdre and Matthew separately.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Best practices emphasize separation:

* "Interviews should be conducted one-on-one to reduce the possibility of collusion, contamination, or intimidation of witnesses" (Fraud Examiners Manual - Interviewing Guidelines). This ensures independent and uncontaminated statements.

NEW QUESTION # 66

Which of the following is the MOST ACCURATE statement regarding a fraud examiner's ability to trace cryptocurrency transactions?

- A. Each Blockchain transaction contains a user's cryptographic address, which can help identify patterns that might link the user to criminal activity.
- B. Most cryptocurrencies rely on private block chains, which allow users' transactions to be completely anonymous and therefore difficult to trace.
- C. Cryptocurrency ownership cannot be determined through an analysis of details on a subject's bank statements.
- D. Most jurisdictions do not require digital wallet providers to record any personal information about cryptocurrency users

Answer: A

Explanation:

The Fraud Examiners Manual explains:

"Each transaction on a blockchain ledger is recorded with a cryptographic address... by analyzing these addresses, fraud examiners can sometimes establish patterns and connections that identify users or link them to criminal activity".

NEW QUESTION # 67

A fraud examiner believes that a suspect might have used illicit funds to construct a commercial building to fit a restaurant. Which of the following records would be the MOST helpful in confirming the owner of the building?

- A. Local court records
- B. Voter registration records
- C. Commercial filings
- D. Building permit records

Answer: D

Explanation:

To confirm ownership of a building, real estate and permit records are most useful. The Manual notes that real property records and related permits identify the owner, provide legal descriptions, and show improvements such as construction of commercial buildings. Court or voter registration records would not typically establish property ownership.
