ISQI ISTQB Foundation Level - Acceptance Testing Sample Questions (Q47-Q52):

NEW QUESTION # 47

You are leading a brand new project team whose members are coming from all over the organization and have no former experience in working together. You need to build a common vision and team spirit. What workshop would fit BEST:

- A. You invite the team members and ask them to design their own (team-wise) emblem representing their values, beliefs, goals, tasks together than a common motto.
- B. You ask every member in turn to write down three things he/she likes and dislikes in the organization and to post them on a wall. A volunteer is then chosen to read randomly some posts that are then discussed with the group.
- C. You draw a staircase with 11 steps, each of them representing a major milestone of the project. The bottom of the stairs corresponds to the first day of the project and the upper step means that the project is released. You locate the present situation in the top of the stairs. The team is asked to identify and discuss the major steps downwards.
- D. You invite every member in turn to describe his/her past experience and his/her major achievements in the organization or in their former job.

Answer: A

Explanation:
Comprehensive Detailed Explanation (Approx. 200 words):
Building a new team with members from diverse backgrounds requires activities that foster shared values, identity, and trust.
Designing a team emblem with values, goals, and a motto is a well-known team-building technique often used in Agile kick-offs. It engages creativity, sparks discussion about shared purpose, and reinforces a collective team identity.
Option A is correct because it supports both vision and team spirit - crucial for newly formed teams.
Other options:
B focuses on individual backgrounds but may not build a collective vision.
C risks highlighting negative views about the organization and may not foster trust at the early stage.
D uses a "staircase" metaphor but incorrectly locates the team at the top of the stairs - potentially signaling an endpoint rather than a beginning, making it inappropriate for a new team.
A). You invite the team members and ask them to design their own emblem...
