AGA Examination 2: Governmental Accounting, Financial Reporting and Budgeting (GAFRB) Sample Questions (Q80-Q85):

NEW QUESTION # 80

An agency operates out of a building that is on the Register of Historic Places; the building is classified as a multi-use federal asset. If the agency recently paid to renovate the office space in the building, the cost for the renovation should be treated as a

- A. stewardship investment.
- B. mission property.
- C. general property, plant and equipment expense.
- D. heritage asset.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Although the building is listed on the National Register of Historic Places (a heritage asset), renovations that support current operations and serve general purposes (e.g., office upgrades) are considered capitalizable or expensed under general property, plant, and equipment (G-PP&E), not stewardship or heritage classifications.

Stewardship or heritage classifications apply to assets whose primary purpose is historical preservation, not ongoing operations.

D). general property, plant and equipment expense

NEW QUESTION # 81

When a rural community creates a fire district to serve an area previously served by the county government, and the fire district receives no money or equipment from the county, this is an example of

- A. a government acquisition.
- B. intergovernmental operations.
- C. a government merger.
- D. a transfer of operations.

Answer: D

Explanation:

According to GASB Statement No. 69 (Government Combinations and Disposals of Government Operations), a transfer of operations occurs when one government relinquishes or ceases operations and another government assumes those operations, but no significant consideration (money, assets, or liabilities) is exchanged.

In this case, the fire district is assuming responsibility for fire protection without receiving funds or assets from the county. That aligns with the definition of a transfer of operations - not a merger or acquisition.

- A. 18 months
- B. 24 months

- C. 12 months
- D. 6 months

Answer: C

Explanation:

According to GASB Statement No. 96 (Subscription-Based Information Technology Arrangements or SBITAs), a subscription agreement is considered "short-term" if the maximum possible term (including renewal options) is 12 months or less.

Short-term SBITAs are not reported as subscription liabilities and are accounted for as outflows (expenses or expenditures) when incurred.

The Government Management Reform Act of 1994 amended the CFO Act of 1990 to require

- A. quarterly financial statements of executive departments.
- B. audited financial statements of the executive departments.
- C. OMB approval of executive department financial statements.
- D. unmodified audit opinions of the executive department financial statements.

Answer: B

Explanation:

The Government Management Reform Act (GMRA) of 1994 amended the Chief Financial Officers (CFO) Act of 1990 to require each executive agency to prepare and submit audited financial statements covering all accounts and associated activities.

This extended the audit requirement beyond the pilot CFO agencies and laid the groundwork for the Financial Report of the U.S. Government.
