NEW QUESTION # 84

Which of the following fraud schemes is MOST LIKELY to target members of a religious community?

- A. Bait and switch scheme
- B. Advance-fee scheme
- C. Social control fraud
- D. Affinity fraud

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 85

An analytical review reveals that XYZ Company's cost of goods sold has increased by 75% in the last year. However, its sales revenues only increased by 25% during the same period. This situation MOST LIKELY indicates which of the following?

- A. There were fewer sales this year compared to last year.
- B. The company started recording warranty liabilities.
- C. There were more sales returns this year than in the prior year.
- D. Inventory has been depleted by theft.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Detailed Explanation:

* Rationale for Correct Answer: A disproportionate increase in COGS without a corresponding increase in sales is a red flag for inventory theft or misappropriation. Theft reduces ending inventory, which artificially inflates COGS, while sales remain unchanged or grow modestly.

* Analysis of Incorrect Options:

* A - Warranty liabilities affect expenses, not COGS.

* B - Fewer sales would reduce both revenue and COGS proportionally, not cause a large disparity.

* C - Sales returns reduce revenue, not inflate COGS.

* Key Concept: Using analytical review to detect inventory theft via COGS anomalies.

instead of the single code normally used for a hysterectomy.

- D. Hope is diagnosed with an ear infection. Hope's doctor writes her a prescription for a name brand medication instead of prescribing a less expensive generic medication.

Answer: B

Explanation:

Detailed Explanation:

* Rationale for Correct Answer: Upcoding occurs when a provider bills for a higher level of service than what was actually provided. Billing a 15-minute visit as a 60-minute visit is a classic upcoding scheme.

* Analysis of Incorrect Options:

* A. Name brand prescription - Not upcoding; this is prescribing choice, not billing fraud.

* B. Multiple codes instead of one - This is unbundling, not upcoding.

* D. Changing service date - This is falsifying service dates, not upcoding.
