The auditor included in the audit report a number of control deficiencies involving processes performed by the service provider. The service provider requested a copy of the report Which of Vie following would be the most appropriate response from the chief audit executive (CAE)?

* A. The CAE may distribute the report to tie service provider at no cost, after consulting with legal counsel and tie chief compliance officer
* B. The CAE would automatically sand a copy of the report to the service provider as many of the findings relate to Via area managed by the service provider
* C. The CAE may provide a copy of the audit report to the service provider If an agreement & signed and the service provider agrees to reimburse the cost of the audit D, The CAE should benchmark with other organization in the industry by consorting with colleagues and distribute the report only I it is an acceptable practice m the industry

Answer: A

Explanation:
According to internal auditing standards and best practices, the distribution of audit reports, especially those involving third-party service providers, must be handled with caution. The CAE should consult with legal counsel and the chief compliance officer before distributing the audit report to ensure that the organization's legal and compliance obligations are met. This ensures that any sensitive information is protected and that the distribution is aligned with the organization's policies and contractual agreements with the service provider.

NEW QUESTION # 65
Which of the following recommendation types is most likely to propose the most long-term solutions?

* A. Condition-based recommendations
* B. Cause-based recommendations
* C. Root cause-based recommendations
* D. Effect-based recommendations

Answer: C

Explanation:
Root cause-based recommendations are most likely to propose long-term solutions. These recommendations address the underlying causes of issues rather than just the symptoms. By identifying and addressing the root causes, the solutions implemented are more likely to be effective in preventing the recurrence of the same or similar issues in the future.
* Root Cause Analysis: This involves a thorough investigation to identify the fundamental reasons for the occurrence of a problem. It goes beyond immediate symptoms to understand the deeper issues.
* Long-term Solutions: Recommendations based on root cause analysis focus on eliminating the underlying causes, leading to sustainable improvements and reducing the likelihood of repeat issues.
* Systemic Improvements: Addressing root causes often leads to changes in processes, controls, or organizational practices, resulting in broader and more lasting benefits.
By focusing on the root cause, the recommendations provide more robust and enduring solutions, contributing to the overall improvement and resilience of the organization.
