Adobe Experience Manager Architect Master Sample Questions (Q43-Q48):

NEW QUESTION # 43

A website hosted on AEM as a Cloud Service (AEMaaS) uses a private key to decrypt data received from a secure web platform. The private key is stored as an encrypted OSGi configuration on the AEM publishers using the OOTB AEM Crypto Support bundle. The architect has received reports from developers stating that while the feature works on the AEMaaS environments, they fail to decrypt the data on the local development environment.

What two actions would the architect take to resolve the issue? (Choose two.)

- A. Export the CryptoKey from AEMaaS environment by creating a content package of the /etc/key path
- B. Navigate to /crx-quickstart/launchpad/felix/bundle/<ID>/data in the file system and copy the hmac and master files from the source instance to the target instances
- C. Start the local AEM environment with the -Dcom.adobe.granite.crypto.file.disable=true option
- D. Restart the com.adobe.granite.crypto OSGi bundle or restart the entire AEM instance
- E. Use the cryptosupport API to decrypt the private key and re-encrypt the value using the /system/console /crypto console

Answer: D,E

NEW QUESTION # 44

Content editors are uploading and editing thousands of PDFs daily, and notice a slow down of the AEM system over time while searching for assets in the DAM. The PDFs content does not need to be searchable. What would the AEM architect do to improve performance?

- A. Create a custom Lucene index
- B. Upsize the authoring instance to a larger tier
- C. Disable Tika text extraction for the damAssetLucene index
- D. Increase the number of maximum parallel jobs for the DAM Update Asset workflows

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 45

A client's marketing pages are generally slow to load which is causing a significant drop in sales. All other AEM pages load within expected performance guidelines regardless of whether the visitor is being served the desktop or mobile experiences. The marketing pages typically get slower when multiple external campaigns such as Facebook and AdWords drive traffic to those pages. The page performance tends to dip during high traffic periods. Internal campaign clicks such as those from hero images use similar campaign codes as external campaign traffic. What should the Architect do to resolve this issue?

- A. Modify the dispatcher.any file's section to ignore campaign-based URL parameters
- B. Set AEM to use GZIP compression instead of the web server's compression
- C. Convert the marketing pages to a responsive design instead of an adaptive design
- D. Add a new dispatcher farm to assist with the client's marketing pages

Answer: A

Explanation:

Modify the dispatcher.any file's section to ignore campaign-based URL parameters<sup>1,2</sup>. According to Adobe Experience Manager documentation<sup>2</sup>, dispatcher can be configured to ignore certain URL parameters that do not affect the content of a page. This can improve caching performance and reduce load on AEM servers.

NEW QUESTION # 46

A news agency editor wants to publish news articles to an intermediate Publish (preview) instance for internal review before publishing the article to production Publish instance. Which two steps should the Architect recommend? (Choose two.)

- A. Create a reverse replication agent on preview server
- B. Create a closed user group (CUG) for editors
- C. Create a separate live copy to preview content
- D. Create a custom publish workflow
- E. Set up a new replication agent for preview server

Answer: C,E

Explanation:

Create a separate live copy to preview content and set up a new replication agent for preview server<sup>1</sup>. According to Adobe Experience Manager documentation<sup>4</sup>, a live copy is used to create a local copy of content from another site that can be modified independently. A replication agent is used to publish content from an author instance to a publish instance. Creating a reverse replication agent on preview server (B) is not necessary as reverse replication is not supported by AEM as a Cloud Service<sup>1</sup>. Creating a custom publish workflow (E) is also not necessary as workflows are handled by AEM Cloud Service automatically<sup>1</sup>.

NEW QUESTION # 47

A customer wants to migrate their AEM environment from an on-premise infrastructure to a public cloud to improve performance. The customer currently hosts many assets (images, videos, documents) in the DAM. Approximately 10 business users frequently upload new assets and update existing assets. Editors then use these assets on the sites.

What should an Architect do as part of this migration?

- A. Run online revision cleanup before moving to the new storage format
- B. Set up Connected Assets to share the DAM assets in the sites
- C. Move to a shared datastore and enable binary less replication
- D. Set up a horizontally scalable AEM environment on MongoDB

Answer: A

Explanation:

"Running online revision cleanup before moving to the new storage format can reduce the size of the repository and improve performance".
