Salesforce Certified CRM Analytics and Einstein Discovery Consultant Sample Questions (Q106-Q111):

NEW QUESTION # 106
A CRM Analytics consultant has prepared a CSV file to be uploaded to CRM Analytics. By mistake, one of the column headers is modified as random non-alphanumeric characters "&(&(%", which went unnoticed prior to uploading the file.
What is the expected behavior of the uploaded CSV column?

- A. The column header is prefixed with "X" upon upload.
- B. The column header Is set to &(&(%.
- C. The column header is auto-updated to "Column" + column number.

Answer: A

Explanation:
When uploading CSV files into CRM Analytics, column headers must follow certain formatting rules. Headers containing non-alphanumeric characters, such as "&(&(%", will automatically be adjusted. Specifically, if the column header starts with non-alphanumeric characters or contains such characters, CRM Analytics will prefix the header with "X" to ensure compatibility with internal naming conventions. This behavior ensures that the column can be referenced in the platform without causing errors or conflicts.

NEW QUESTION # 107
Universal Containers uses CRM Analytics to build dashboards for different departments: Sales, Service, and Marketing. Users in the same department have the same role and need to have access to the same dashboards. Dashboards for different departments use some common datasets with the same row-level security.
How should a CRM Analytics consultant address this need?

- A. Create one app for each department, put common datasets in the shared app, and use permission sets to share apps.
- B. Create one app for each department, put common datasets in the shared app, and use profiles to share apps.
- C. Create one app for each department, put common datasets in the shared app, and use roles to share apps.

Answer: A

Explanation:
For managing access to department-specific dashboards while leveraging common datasets, the best approach involves the use of apps and permission sets. Here's why:
App Segregation: Creating a separate app for each department (Sales, Service, Marketing) allows for tailored dashboards and datasets to be grouped by department, facilitating easier management and navigation.
Shared Common Datasets: Placing common datasets in a shared app ensures that all departments can access necessary data without duplication, maintaining consistency and reducing storage requirements.
Use of Permission Sets: Leveraging permission sets to control access to these apps is a flexible and scalable approach. Permission sets can be finely tuned to grant or restrict access based on user roles within the organization, and they can be easily adjusted as roles or organizational structures change.

This structure not only ensures data security and appropriate access but also enhances the efficiency of managing CRM Analytics resources across different departments.

NEW QUESTION # 108

The CRM Analytics consultant at Universal Containers has set data syncs and recipe runs back to back. However, they notice that the data syncs and recipe run jobs fail repeatedly. Upon investigation, they realize the data syncs and recipes are tightly coupled which leads to too many runs being queued and eventually being canceled.

How should the consultant resolve this issue?

- A. Raise a case with Salesforce Support to help Increase the concurrency limits of the org.
- B. Set up failure notifications so that the CRM Analytics consultant gets notified when this happens and can fix the Issue.
- C. Enable priority scheduling to automatically queue shorter or smaller runs before longer or larger ones.

Answer: C
