EC-COUNCIL EC-Council Certified CISO (CCISO) Sample Questions (Q309-Q314):

NEW QUESTION # 309
Scenario: An organization has recently appointed a CISO. This is a new role in the organization and it signals the increasing need to address security consistently at the enterprise level. This new CISO, while confident with skills and experience, is constantly on the defensive and is unable to advance the IT security centric agenda.
The CISO has been able to implement a number of technical controls and is able to influence the Information Technology teams but has not been able to influence the rest of the organization.
From an organizational perspective, which of the following is the LIKELY reason for this?

- A. The CISO does not report directly to the CEO of the organization

- B. The CISO has not implemented a policy management framework
- C. The CISO has not implemented a security awareness program
- D. The CISO reports to the IT organization

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 310

Assigning the role and responsibility of Information Assurance to a dedicated and independent security group is an example of:

- A. Proactive Controls
- B. Detective Controls
- C. Preemptive Controls
- D. Organizational Controls

Answer: D

Explanation:
Definition of Organizational Controls:
* These controls involve structuring roles, responsibilities, and processes to ensure effective governance and accountability in information security.
Information Assurance Role:
* Assigning independent security groups to oversee information assurance aligns with organizational controls to separate duties and avoid conflicts of interest.
Supporting Reference:
* CCISO materials highlight organizational controls as foundational to establishing accountability and ensuring objectivity in security processes.

NEW QUESTION # 311

Quantitative Risk Assessments have the following advantages over qualitative risk assessments:

- A. They are subjective and can be completed more quickly
- B. They are subjective and can express risk /cost in real numbers
- C. They are objective and can express risk / cost in real numbers
- D. They are objective and express risk / cost in approximates

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 312

A CISO sees abnormally high volumes of exceptions to security requirements and constant pressure from business units to change security processes. Which of the following represents the MOST LIKELY cause of this situation?

- A. This is normal since business units typically resist security requirements
- B. Poor alignment of the security program to business needs
- C. Poor audit support for the security program
- D. A lack of executive presence within the security program

Answer: B

Explanation:
Alignment with Business Needs:A security program that fails to align with organizational goals often faces resistance, resulting in exceptions and pressure to modify processes.
Key Indicators:
* Frequent exceptions indicate a disconnect between security policies and business operations.
* Alignment ensures that security is seen as an enabler, not a hindrance, to business objectives.
Why Not Other Options:
* Poor audit support (A) is unrelated to the root cause of pressure for changes.
* Lack of executive presence (B) affects leadership but not directly alignment issues.
* Resistance from business units (D) is not normal; it suggests misalignment.

EC-Council Emphasis:Aligning security programs with business needs is essential for reducing friction and fostering collaboration.

NEW QUESTION # 313
Scenario: Critical servers show signs of erratic behavior within your organization's intranet. Initial information indicates the systems are under attack from an outside entity. As the Chief Information Security Officer (CISO), you decide to deploy the Incident Response Team (IRT) to determine the details of this incident and take action according to the information available to the team. During initial investigation, the team suspects criminal activity but cannot initially prove or disprove illegal actions.
What is the MOST critical aspect of the team's activities?

- A. Preservation of information
- B. Eradication of malware and system restoration
- C. Determination of the attack source
- D. Regular communication of incident status to executives

Answer: A
