CWNP Certified Wireless Analysis Professional Sample Questions (Q111-Q116):

NEW QUESTION # 111

You need to determine RF activity over time in a spectrum analyzer. It is to be able to see the activity and the amplitude of that activity.

What kind of view should be used?

- A. Channel listing
- B. Real-time FFT
- C. Swept spectrogram
- D. Device listing

Answer: C

Explanation:

The FFT shows spectral activity in the frequency domain, while waterfall or swept spectrogram views attempt to represent RF activity over time

NEW QUESTION # 112

What element was added to the general frame of 802.11 with the 802.11e amendment and the 802.11-2007 rollup?

- A. Address 4
- B. QoS Control
- C. HT Control
- D. RSN-IE

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 113

In which element of a Beacon frame would you look to identify the current HT protection mode in which an AP is operating?

- A. ERP Information Element
- B. HT Capabilities Element
- C. HT Operations Element
- D. HT Protection Element

Answer: C

Explanation:

The HT protection mode in which an AP is operating can be identified by looking at the HT Operations element in a Beacon frame. The HT Operations element is a part of the Beacon frame that contains information about the High Throughput (HT) capabilities and operation of an 802.11n BSS. The HT Operations element has a field called HT Protection, which indicates how the BSS protects its HT transmissions from interference or collisions with non-HT devices or BSSs. The HT Protection field can have four values: No Protection, Nonmember Protection, 20 MHz Protection, or Non-HT Mixed Mode. The other options are not correct, as they do not contain information about the HT protection mode. The HT Protection element does not exist, the ERP Information element is used for Extended Rate PHY (ERP) protection mode for 802.11g devices, and the HT Capabilities element is used for indicating the supported HT features of an individual device. #### NEW QUESTION # 114

You have been asked to recommend a solution for protocol capture of 802.11 frames consisting of 3x3:3

802.11ac communications. The requirement specifies that you gain a general view of a coverage area and does not require that you capture from specific user locations. The solution must be the least expensive practical solution possible that does not disrupt user access to the WLAN and it must be based on enterprise WLAN hardware.

What solution would you recommend so that any coverage area could be monitored on demand?

- A. Install Wireshark on the Aps natively to allow dynamic capture while serving clients
- B. Install sufficient Aps so that an AP can be taken offline to perform protocol analysis as needed
- C. Install the minimum number of Aps required for coverage and use these Aps for protocol analysis as needed
- D. Install laptop-based protocol analyzer near each AP

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 115

Given: The Frame Check Sequence (FCS) is a 32 CRC used for error detection.
The CRC is calculated over what?

- A. Frame Body only
- B. Mac Header and Frame Body only
- C. PHY Header, MAC Header and Frame Body
- D. PHY Header and Mac Header only

Answer: B

Explanation:

The CRC is calculated over the MAC Header and Frame Body only. The CRC (Cyclic Redundancy Check) is a 32-bit value that is used for error detection in wireless transmissions. The CRC is calculated over the MAC Header and Frame Body of a PSDU, which are the parts of the data unit that contain information such as source and destination addresses, frame type, frame control, sequence number, payload, etc. The CRC is appended to the end of the PSDU as a FCS (Frame Check Sequence) field. The CRC is not calculated over the PHY Header or PHY Preamble, which are parts of the PPDU that contain information such as modulation, coding, data rate, etc. The PHY Header and PHY Preamble are added or removed by the PHY layer during the conversion between PSDU and PPDU.
