質問 #82

In the power dominance model, which factor is most likely to strengthen the buyers' power relative to suppliers?

- A. High availability of substitute products
- B. High switching costs for buyers
- C. Low price sensitivity among buyers
- D. A small number of suppliers for a large number of buyers

正解: A

解説:

Choice D is the correct answer. When numerous substitute products are available, buyers can easily switch suppliers if dissatisfied, increasing their bargaining power in negotiations.

Incorrect answer:

Choice A- This typically increases supplier power, as a limited number of suppliers can dictate terms to a larger pool of buyers.
 Choice B- This would decrease the power of buyers, as they would be less likely to change suppliers due to the costs involved.
 Choice C- If buyers are not sensitive to price, they are less likely to negotiate strongly or switch suppliers based on cost, which decreases their bargaining power.

質問 #83

Despite Mr. Benjamin being galling, he is the boss, and employees recognize that he has worked hard to earn his management position. When he gives orders, you comply because you acknowledge his authority. What type of power does Mr. Benjamin hold?

- A. Expert Power
- B. Network Power
- C. Legitimate Power
- D. Referent Power

正解: C

解説:

Choice B- The correct answer is legitimate power, as it stems from a person's position within the organization. Mr. Benjamin's authority as a manager grants him the power to give orders, and employees are expected to comply due to his status and role.

Incorrect answer:

Choice A- Expert power is possessed by someone who has skills, knowledge or expertise in a certain area. In this situation Mr Benjamin does not have any expertise of any area.

Choice C-Nothing about strong interpersonal relationship skills is mentioned here which people with referent power have.

Choice D-Network power stakeholders usually have access to valuable connections or are central to a powerful group. So again nothing about these qualities are mentioned about Mr Benjamin.

質問 #84

A company frequently ships high-value goods internationally, and the logistics team identifies a significant risk of financial loss due to potential cargo theft or damage during transit. To mitigate this risk, the company hires an external freight forwarder who provides insurance coverage and assumes full responsibility for the goods while in transit.

What is the most appropriate risk management strategy in this scenario?

- A. Terminate
- B. Treat
- C. Transfer
- D. Tolerate

正解: C

解説:

Option B- By hiring the external freight forwarder with insurance coverage, the company shifts the responsibility and potential financial loss to a third party. Thus, the correct answer is B.

Incorrect answer:

Option A- "Treat" involves taking action to mitigate the risk internally. For example, the company could implement its own security measures, such as using GPS tracking, enhanced packaging, or employing in-house logistics staff. In this scenario, the company is not mitigating the risk itself but instead transferring the responsibility to the freight forwarder.

Option C- The risk of theft or damage is significant in this scenario, and ignoring it would likely result in substantial financial losses. Hence, tolerating the risk is not a viable strategy.

Option D- Terminating the activity is not practical for the business, as shipping goods internationally is likely critical to operations. Instead, transferring the risk to the freight forwarder is a more reasonable approach.

質問 #85

Which of the following best demonstrates how implementing ISO standards can result in direct cost savings?

- A. Gaining new customers by showcasing compliance with international standards
- B. Enhancing brand image and reputation in the global market
- C. Cloud-based document management systems for paperless operations

- D. Artificial intelligence for predictive customer behavior analysis

正解: C

解説:

Option D- This is the correct answer, as cloud-based document storage systems reduce paper, printing, and storage costs. ISO standards often encourage sustainable practices like digitizing documents, which directly saves on operational costs related to printing and paper use.

Incorrect answer:

Option A- While AI can improve business efficiency and decision-making, it is more focused on optimizing customer engagement and marketing strategies. It does not directly lead to cost savings.

Option B- Improving brand image is a long-term strategic benefit but does not directly reduce costs. It may contribute to business growth but not immediate cost savings.

Option C- ISO certification can attract new customers and boost business credibility, but this is more about increasing revenue rather than reducing costs.
