Which is the first task of PRINCE2's recommended approach to 'defining and analyzing the products'?

- A. Writing the product description
- B. Creating a product flow diagram
- C. Documenting the plan
- D. Writing a project product description

Answer: D

Explanation:

The first task in PRINCE2's recommended approach to 'defining and analyzing the products' is writing the Project Product Description. This document outlines what the project must deliver in order to gain acceptance. It serves as the basis for defining and analyzing more detailed product descriptions later in the process. NEW QUESTION # 386

According to the 'continued business justification' principle, what should happen to the funds when a project can no longer be justified?

- A. They should be used to deliver a reduction in the scope of the project
- B. They should be used to create an alternative business case for the project
- C. They should be returned to corporate, programme management or customer
- D. They should be transferred back to the project board to reassign

Answer: C

Explanation:

According to the 'continued business justification' principle of PRINCE2, if a project can no longer be justified - meaning it no longer meets its original or updated justification for a viable return on investment - the funds allocated to it should be returned to corporate, programme management, or the customer. This ensures that resources are not wasted on unjustifiable projects. References: = PRINCE2 7 Foundation handbook and online resources
