Cisco Implementing Cisco Enterprise Wireless Networks Sample Questions (Q303-Q308):

NEW QUESTION # 303

An engineer has been hired to implement a way for users to stream video content without having issues on the wireless network. To accomplish this goal, the engineer must set up a reliable way for a Media Stream to work between Cisco FlexConnect APs. Which feature must be enabled to guarantee delivery?

- A. Unicast Direct
- B. IGMP Direct
- C. Multicast-to-Unicast Direct

- D. Multicast Direct

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 304

On a Cisco Catalyst 9800 Series Wireless Controller, an engineer wants to prevent a FlexConnect AP from allowing wireless clients to connect when its Ethernet connection is nonoperational. Which command set prevents this connection?

- A. config terminal
 wireless profile flex [profile name]
 ethernet-fallback-enable
 end
- B. config terminal
 wireless flexconnect profile [profile name]
 ethernet-fallback-enable
 end
- C. config terminal
 wireless profile flex [profile name]
 fallback-radio-shut
 end
- D. config terminal
 wireless flexconnect profile [profile name]
 fallback-radio-shut
 end

Answer: D

Explanation:

In Cisco Catalyst 9800 Series Wireless Controllers, when a FlexConnect AP loses its wired connection to the controller, it can either:

Continue allowing wireless clients to connect (default behavior).

Disable its radios to prevent client connections (fallback-radio-shut feature).

The correct command to ensure client connections are disabled when the AP loses wired connectivity is:

bash
Copy
Edit
config terminal
    wireless profile flex [profile name]
    fallback-radio-shut
```

This command shuts down the radios when the AP enters standalone mode (i.e., loses connection to the WLC), preventing clients from connecting.

NEW QUESTION # 305

An engineer set up a VoWLAN with QoS on the WLC and a class map on the switch, but the markings are not being preserved correctly in the end-to-end traffic flow. Which two configurations on the wired network ensure end-to-end QoS? (Choose two.)

- A. NetFlow
- B. access lists
- C. policy maps
- D. trust boundaries
- E. QoS licenses

Answer: C,D

Explanation:

To ensure end-to-end QoS and preserve markings correctly in the VoWLAN setup, the configurations needed on the wired network are trust boundaries and policy maps. Trust boundaries define where the network trusts the QoS markings on packets, and policy maps are used to enforce QoS policies on the network. References :

NEW QUESTION # 306

An engineer has configured the wireless controller to authenticate clients on the employee SSID against Microsoft Active Directory using PEAP authentication.

Which protocol does the controller use to communicate with the authentication server?

- A. WPA2
- B. EAP
- C. 802.1X
- D. RADIUS

Answer: D

Explanation:

When a wireless controller is configured to authenticate clients against Microsoft Active Directory using PEAP (Protected Extensible Authentication Protocol), it uses RADIUS (Remote Authentication Dial-In User Service) as the protocol to communicate with the authentication server. RADIUS is a networking protocol that provides centralized Authentication, Authorization, and Accounting (AAA) management for users who connect and use a network service.

NEW QUESTION # 307

What are two considerations when deploying a Cisco Hyperlocation? (Choose two.)

- A. The Cisco Hyperlocation feature must be enabled only on the wireless LAN controller.
- B. NTP configuration is available, but not recommended.
- C. After enabling Cisco Hyperlocation on Cisco CMX, the APs and the wireless LAN controller must be restarted.
- D. The Cisco Hyperlocation feature must be enabled on the wireless LAN controller and Cisco CMX.
- E. If the Cisco CMX server is a VM, a high-end VM is needed for Cisco Hyperlocation deployments.

Answer: D,E
