- A. Increased data loss during outages

NEW QUESTION # 32

Which component must be enabled in order to render business lineage when installing IBM Knowledge Catalog?

- A. Data quality
- B. Knowledge graph
- C. Automated metadata lineage
- D. Data graph

Answer: B

Explanation:

Business Lineage and Knowledge Graph: IBM Knowledge Catalog leverages a Knowledge Graph to store and visualize the relationships between various assets, including data assets, governance artifacts (like business terms), and the flow of data. Business lineage, which shows the end-to-end journey of data in business terms, relies heavily on these interconnected relationships within the Knowledge Graph.

Documentation Confirmation: IBM's documentation explicitly states: "To view lineage, you can have any role in a catalog. Optional This feature is not available by default. Knowledge graph must be installed with IBM Knowledge Catalog, IBM Knowledge Catalog Premium, or IBM Knowledge Catalog Standard.

For information on installing knowledge graph, see Specifying additional installation options in the IBM Software Hub documentation." (Source: IBM Documentation on Lineage). It further clarifies, "Enable knowledge graph to gain access to the lineage feature, business-term relationship search, and the relationship explorer."

NEW QUESTION # 33

How does the IBM Data Virtualization service virtualize files in shared directories?

- A. A remote connector is installed and run on the source server.
- B. It scans its network for open file shares.
- C. Administrators configure FTP connections to the file source.
- D. Users add shared file systems in the UI.

Answer: A

Explanation:

To virtualize files that reside in shared directories (e.g., NFS, SMB, or other on-premises sources), IBM Data Virtualization uses a remote connector agent. This remote connector is installed and executed on the source server to enable secure access and metadata extraction.

The service does not scan networks automatically nor rely on FTP. Directly adding file shares via the UI is not sufficient without the backend connector in place, which acts as a secure communication bridge.
