NEW QUESTION # 352

How does PRINCE2 ensure that the specific management needs of an organization are met?

- A. By incorporating tailoring
- B. By mandating training
- C. By representing best practice
- D. By focusing on viability

Answer: A

Explanation:

PRINCE2 ensures that the specific management needs of an organization are met by incorporating tailoring.

Tailoring involves adapting the method to suit the project's environment, size, complexity, importance, capability, and risk. It allows organizations to apply PRINCE2 effectively across different types of projects and organizational environments.

NEW QUESTION # 353

Which product describes the method the project will use to engage with corporate, programme management or the customer?

- A. Communication management approach

- B. Change control approach
- C. Quality management approach
- D. Benefits management approach

Answer: A

Explanation:

The Communication Management Approach describes the means and frequency of communication to parties both within and outside the project. It outlines how the project will engage with stakeholders, including corporate, programme management, or the customer. This approach ensures that necessary information is provided to the right stakeholders at the right time.

NEW QUESTION # 354

How does the project board use the 'manage by stages' principle to control the project?

- A. By reviewing previous project closure documentation
- B. By ensuring that the benefits are managed and controlled
- C. By reviewing project viability at defined intervals
- D. By approving the project management team

Answer: C

Explanation:

The 'Manage by Stages' principle in PRINCE2 allows the project board to control the project effectively by reviewing its viability at the end of each management stage. This review process provides regular control points where the continuation of the project is assessed based on its performance and continued business justification.
