Regarding the MB-500 test, you will be utilizing it to offer support to what you have acquired already from other study plans that include training and labs. Thus, it is only best to use after your course and doing practice with action-based labs. The book comprises 44 questions that you can properly use to practice and reinforce content. Answers are provided as well so that you can confirm the result of your preparation, as well as identify weaknesses and strengths.

In addition to all of the above, Microsoft offers its own developed products that can be used as learning tools. As a candidate for exam MB-500, one can opt for the free course to take place online or the tutor-guided course as captured below.

- Course MB-500T00-A: Microsoft Dynamics 365: Finance and Operations Apps Developer

By opting to be directed by an instructor, you will be learning either in-person or virtually. The specialized training captures what developers for Dynamics 365 Finance & Operations Apps require. The MB-500T00-A is a course running for 5 days and includes lessons and labs. It has ten modules, including overview and architecture, developer tools, solution design, AOT elements, developing and testing code, data migration, and frameworks, and much more. As a result, this will give you all the necessary groundwork to demonstrate your qualifications with flying colors on the final test.

- Implementing Microsoft Dynamics 365 for Finance and Operations Apps: Learn best practices, architecture, tools, techniques, and more by JJ Yadav, Sandeep Shukla, Rahul Mohta, Yogesh Kasat

This study guide is into best practices, tools, architecture, and techniques, among other things that concern Finance & Operations Apps. The key features of which, including the content, are there to create deep awareness concerning Finance & Operations Apps as well as their implementation. Thus, you will be digging deep into the management and planning of varying Dynamics configurations, products, and designs, the management of projects targeting pre-sales as well as implementing the use of Microsoft Dynamic LCS. Another area concerns varying frameworks, techniques, and tools for planning that include PowerApps and Power Automate.

So, this edition, which can best serve the MB-500 testing needs, digs into the whole process of executing the Finance & Operations Apps for Dynamics 365. It also consists of post-execution as well as business transformation. The targeted audience includes developers, solutions architects, project managers, and consultants who wish to be executing the required solutions. That's why this book starts by introducing you to Dynamics 365 while describing varying apps as well as tools associated with it. Learning will concern different methodologies for implementation like Agile and Waterfall that can be used in projects. Also, the guide concerns varied applications components in addition to architecture linked to Dynamics, as well as covers requirements processing, reports alongside analytics, development, and integration. And through tips, techniques, as well as best practices, your knowledge will include strategies used to manage configurations in addition to data migrations.

- Self-paced online learning on the Microsoft Learn platform

The course comprises five learning paths, with each capturing varying modules composed of short lectures and quizzes to check your knowledge. The paths deal with Finance & Operations Apps in the aspects of developing, building, extending, connecting, and migrating data, and going live with the apps. However, for the training process to be more productive, it is recommended that candidates already have fundamentals of Finance and Operations apps, Lifecycle Services, and be familiar with object-oriented development.

Target Audience for MB-500 Exam

The candidates who want to pass MB-500 should have previous knowledge of using different products including SQL Server Management Studio, tools for LCS, DevOps, or Visual Studio. Also, the vendor recommends that they should have previously worked with code development with the help of object-oriented programming languages. Candidates should also know how to analyze and manipulate data with the help of Transact-SQL code, as well as creating and running Windows PowerShell scripts and commands. All in all, the audience who should take the Microsoft MB-500 test is formed by specialists who have strong knowledge and experience using data structures, underlying framework and objects associated with Operations and Finance solutions.

NEW QUESTION # 289

You create the following cloud-based Dynamics 365 Finance environments:

A developer creates code extensions in the Development environment. The developer checks the code changes into an Azure DevOps branch.

You need to deploy the code changes to the Standard Acceptance Test environment.

What should you do? To answer, select the appropriate options in the answer area.

NOTE: Each correct selection is worth one point.

Answer:

Explanation:

Explanation:

Box 1: Build the code in the DevOps pipeline.

Box 2: Asset library

Run the export to the Asset library in Microsoft Dynamics Lifecycle Services (LCS).

Box 3: Select Maintain and Apply updates.

reprovision the target environment

If you copy a database between environments, the copied database won't be fully functional until you run the Environment reprovisioning tool to make sure that all Commerce components are up to date.

Follow these steps to run the Environment reprovisioning tool.

* In your project's Asset Library, in the Software deployable packages section, click Import.

* From the list of shared assets, select the Environment Reprovisioning Tool.

* On the Environment details page for your target environment, select Maintain > Apply updates.

* Select the Environment Reprovisioning tool that you uploaded earlier, and then select Apply to apply the package.

* Monitor the progress of the package deployment.

NEW QUESTION # 290

You need to develop, test, and deploy the Vendor Exclusion list solution.

What should you create? To answer, drag the appropriate objects to the correct actions. Each element may be used once, more than once, or not at all. You may need to drag the split bar between panes or scroll to view content.

NOTE: Each correct selection is worth one point.

Answer:

Explanation:

Explanation

Box 1: package

An AOT package is a deployment and compilation unit of one or more models that can be applied to an environment. It includes model metadata, binaries, reports and other associated resources. One or more AOT packages can be packaged into a deployable package, which is the vehicle used for deployment of code (and customizations) on demo, sandbox, and production environments.

Box 2: New model

Model - You configure your model to refer to two other models. This enables your model to reference metadata and code elements that are in other packages.

Box 3: project

Project - You create a project and then associate your project to your new model. You add elements to your project, which are also added to your model. Specifically, you add an extended data type (EDT). You also add a table that you populate with fields and a method.

Box 4: deployable package
