VMware Advanced VMware Cloud Foundation 9.0 Operation Sample Questions (Q237-Q242):

NEW QUESTION # 237

A customer has a VCF Operations for Networks instance collecting data from 5 vCenters. One specific vCenter manages a VDI environment with high churn and massive flow volume, causing the existing "Shared Collector" to drop packets. What is the recommended design change to isolate this high-load environment?

- A. Deploy a Dedicated Collector (Proxy VM) specifically for the VDI vCenter and re-point that data source to the new collector.
- B. Move the VDI vCenter to a different VCF Operations for Networks instance entirely (Federation).
- C. Configure the VDI vCenter to only send "Sampled" flows (1 in 1000).
- D. Increase the memory of the Platform Node.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 238

A Cloud Admin is investigating why the "Management Domain" object in VCF Operations is showing a "Warning" health state. The administrator examines the following log events and object hierarchy.

(Select all that apply.)

Log Events - Source: vcf-ops-analytics

[ERROR] Adapter instance [SDDC-Adapter] unable to retrieve health for object 'sddc-manager-01'.

[WARN] Collection cycle skipped for resource 'vcenter-mgmt-01' due to high latency (450ms).

Object Hierarchy View

> VCF World

> Management Domain (sfo-m01) [State: Warning]

> SDDC Manager (sfo-m01-sddc01) [State: Unknown]

> vCenter (sfo-m01-vc01) [State: Healthy]

> NSX Manager (sfo-m01-nsx01) [State: Healthy]

Based on the logs and hierarchy, which statements accurately describe the root cause or impact?

- A. The Management Domain object health is rolling up the "Unknown" state of the SDDC Manager as a "Warning" or "Critical" condition.
- B. The VCF Operations analytics cluster is down, preventing all data processing.
- C. The SDDC Manager adapter instance is failing to collect data, causing the SDDC Manager object state to become "Unknown".
- D. The high latency on vCenter collection suggests a network bottleneck between the Cloud Proxy and the Management Domain vCenter.
- E. The NSX Manager is the root cause of the Management Domain warning due to a hidden critical alert.

Answer: A,C,D

NEW QUESTION # 239

A Solution Architect is designing a "DMZ Workload Domain" that requires strict isolation and enhanced security monitoring. The design proposes the following component structure and VCF Operations integration. (Select all that apply.)

Proposed Design - DMZ-WLD

1. Compute: Dedicated vCenter Server.

2. Network: Dedicated NSX Manager Cluster.

3. Storage: vSAN (Dedicated).

4. Monitoring: New Cloud Proxy deployed in DMZ-WLD, connected to Management Domain VCF Operations.

5. Security: NSX Distributed Firewall (DFW) logging enabled.

Monitoring Requirement

"Ensure all DFW logs from the DMZ are analyzed for security breaches, but keep the log traffic isolated from the Management Domain management network." Which design choices or configurations correctly address the architecture and monitoring requirements?

- A. VCF Operations can ingest the DFW logs directly via the Cloud Proxy without needing VCF Operations for Logs (Aria Operations for Logs).
- B. To satisfy the "isolated log traffic" requirement, a separate VCF Operations for Logs cluster should be deployed within the DMZ-WLD, rather than forwarding logs to the Management Domain.
- C. The "Dedicated vCenter Server" is optional; the DMZ cluster could be managed by the Management vCenter to reduce licensing costs while maintaining security.
- D. Deploying a "Cloud Proxy" in the DMZ-WLD allows VCF Operations to collect metrics/logs locally and transmit them securely over a single HTTPS port to the Management Domain.
- E. The "Dedicated NSX Manager" choice ensures that security policies for the DMZ are not visible to or editable by admins of other Workload Domains.

Answer: B,D,E

NEW QUESTION # 240

An Automation Central job is configured to "Delete Powered Off VMs" with a criteria of "Powered Off >

14 Days". A user manually powers off a VM on Monday. On Tuesday (1 day later), the user complains that the VM was deleted by the automation.

What is the most likely explanation for this behavior?

- A. The Automation Central job was misconfigured with the wrong scope or criteria (e.g., "Powered Off >

0 Days").

- B. The VM was actually powered off 2 weeks ago, briefly powered on, and then off again; the counter didn't reset.
- C. The VM had a "Snapshot" that was older than 14 days, and the administrator mistakenly configured the job to "Delete Snapshots" instead of "Delete VMs", or configured a separate "Snapshot Cleanup" job that inadvertently deleted the VM state. (Or, most simply: The criteria logic uses the "Total Powered Off Time" metric which might accumulate if not reset properly, but C is the most direct config error).
- D. Automation Central ignored the criteria.

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 241

An architect is deploying a Continuous Availability cluster. Where must the Witness Node be deployed to ensure proper split-brain protection?

- A. In Fault Domain 2 (Secondary Site).
- B. In a third, independent site (Fault Domain 3) that has network connectivity to both Fault Domain 1 and Fault Domain 2.
- C. In Fault Domain 1 (Primary Site).
- D. On the same ESXi host as the Master Node.

Answer: B
