問題 #44

In most countries employers must provide notice to their employees before they implement an employee monitoring program

- A. False
- B. True

答案: B

問題 #45

During an internal investigation Todd a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE) interviewed Janessa a fraud suspect. Although Janessa wanted to leave in the middle of the interview, Todd blocked the exit and prevented her from leaving. Janessa subsequently confessed to committing fraud. If under these facts Janessa files a lawsuit (or false imprisonment) against Todd, Todd will likely

- A. Win the case because he is protected under the qualified business privilege
- B. Lose the case if a trier of fact concludes that he restrained Janessa without consent or legal justification
- C. Win the case if he did not know the conduct was illegal
- D. Lose the case because Janessa did not leave the interview

答案: B

解題說明:

This question tests your knowledge of Domain 10.

In the context of Basic Principles of Evidence, specifically relating to privilege, the question asks about CFE.

The correct answer is B: Lose the case if a trier of fact concludes that he restrained Janessa without consent or legal justification. This question tests knowledge of evidence principles. The correct answer correctly distinguishes between types of evidence, admissibility requirements, or evidentiary privileges. Proper handling of evidence is crucial for successful fraud investigations and prosecutions.
