Useful links	Description
How to earn the certification	Some certifications only require one exam, while others require more. On the details page, you'll find information about what skills are measured and links to registration. Each exam also has its own details page covering exam specifics.
Your Microsoft Learn profile	Connecting your certification profile to Learn brings all your learning activities together. You'll be able to schedule and renew exams, share and print certificates, badges and transcripts, and review your learning statistics inside your Learn profile.
Passing score	All technical exam scores are reported on a scale of 1 to 1,000. A passing score is 700 or greater. As this is a scaled score, it may not equal 70% of the points. A passing score is based on the knowledge and skills needed to demonstrate competence as well as the difficulty of the questions.
Exam sandbox	Are you new to Microsoft certification exams? You can explore the exam environment by visiting our exam sandbox. We created the sandbox as an opportunity for you to experience an exam before you take it. In the sandbox, you can interact with different question types, such as build list, case studies, and others that you might encounter in the user interface when you take an exam. Additionally, it includes the introductory screens, instructions, and help topics related to the different types of questions that your exam might include. It also includes the non-disclosure agreement that you must accept before you can launch the exam.
