CCE Global Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE) Sample Questions (Q91-Q96):

NEW QUESTION # 91

Which of the following occurs last during the initial counseling process?

- A. developing an action plan
- B. identifying counseling goals
- C. assessing client needs

Answer: A

Explanation:

During the initial counseling process, the sequence typically begins with assessing client needs, followed by identifying counseling goals, and lastly, developing an action plan to address those goals. "Developing an action plan is the final step of the initial counseling stage, occurring after needs assessment and goal setting." Reference: Helwig, A. A. (2020). CPCE Study Guide and Review.

NEW QUESTION # 92

Which of the following most accurately defines what group counselors mean by the term clarifying?

- A. offering plausible explanations for certain behaviors
- B. helping members sort through conflicting feelings
- C. encouraging clients to assess problems realistically

Answer: B

Explanation:

In group counseling, clarifying involves helping members sort through and articulate their thoughts and conflicting feelings. This process assists members in gaining a clearer understanding of themselves and the issues they are facing, which supports more effective group work and personal growth. "Clarifying is used by counselors to assist clients or group members in sorting through confusion, particularly when they have conflicting feelings or thoughts." Reference: Helwig, A. A. (2020). CPCE Study Guide and Review; Corey, G. (2016). Theory and Practice of Group Counseling (9th Edition).

NEW QUESTION # 93

Which of the following is person-centered task of a counseling group leader?

- A. navigating group members' resistance to behavior change
- B. facilitating group members' honest and meaningful interactions
- C. helping group members satisfy their basic needs

Answer: B

Explanation:

A key person-centered task for group leaders is facilitating honest and meaningful interactions among group members. This approach, rooted in the work of Carl Rogers, focuses on creating a safe and accepting environment that encourages authenticity and personal growth.

Reference: Helwig, A. A. (2020). CPCE Study Guide and Review; Corey, G. (2016). Theory and Practice of Group Counseling (9th Edition).

NEW QUESTION # 94

In addition to the validity and reliability of a test, appropriateness is another important consideration in the evaluation of a test. The most common limiting factor in appropriateness is the test's

- A. reading level.
- B. time limit.
- C. instructions.

Answer: A

Explanation:

Reading level is often the most common limiting factor in the appropriateness of a test. Even a test that is valid and reliable may not be appropriate if the test-taker cannot read or comprehend the questions due to an advanced or inappropriate reading level. Appropriateness ensures that test content is accessible and understandable to the intended test population. "A test's appropriateness is frequently compromised by the reading level required, which can limit accurate assessment for some examinees." Reference: Helwig, A. A. (2020). CPCE Study Guide and Review; Cohen, R. J., & Swerdlik, M. E. (2018). Psychological Testing and Assessment.

NEW QUESTION # 95

When would a multiple regression research design be selected?

- A. To determine if two or more independent variables cause changes in a dependent variable.
- B. To determine the effect of multiple independent variables on a dependent variable together and singularly.
- C. To determine if two or more independent variables predict a dependent variable.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Multiple regression is used to determine how well two or more independent variables predict a dependent variable. It does not establish causation, but it does show the relative contribution of each predictor in accounting for variance in the outcome variable.

Reference: Helwig, A. A. (2020). CPCE Study Guide and Review; Cohen, R. J., & Swerdlik, M. E. (2018).

Psychological Testing and Assessment.
