ASIS Certified Protection Professional Sample Questions (Q677-Q682):

NEW QUESTION # 677

The most important skill required of an effective security manager is:

- A. organization.
- B. delegation.
- C. employee development.
- D. communication.

Answer: D

Explanation:

Effective communication is the most important skill for a security manager, as it enables them to convey policies, procedures, and expectations clearly to employees and stakeholders. Strong communication skills are essential for building relationships, resolving conflicts, and ensuring that security measures are understood and implemented correctly across the organization.

ASIS Certified Protection Professional (CPP) References:

* Leadership and Communication: CPP materials emphasize communication as a critical skill for leadership, fostering collaboration and compliance.

* Security Management Practices: Effective communication is highlighted as key to aligning security goals with organizational objectives.

NEW QUESTION # 678

In order to adequately plan for emergencies, the security manager must make certain that the corporation has access to all necessary resources that will save lives, minimize damage, and ensure the continued operation of rapid restoration of damaged member plants. Most plants ensure access to such resources by:

- A. Contracting with local security companies to provide necessary resources, if needed during an emergency
- B. Establishing appropriate liaison with the police, fire, rescue, and medical forces of the community to provide services as needed
- C. Providing for a budget that will supply all the resources needed to cope with a major emergency
- D. Establishing appropriate contact with the nearest military base
- E. Relying on their own self-help organization and equipment and joining hands with other plants in the community for mutual aid

Answer: E

NEW QUESTION # 679

To combat the crime of loan sharking, the U.S. Congress passed:

- A. The Omnibus Crime Act
- B. None of the above
- C. The Organized Crime Control Act
- D. The Extortionate Credit Transactions Act
- E. The Federal Crime Act

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION # 680

The most effective managerial style for a supervisor is to:

- A. evaluate the performance of subordinates on an annual or semiannual basis.
- B. acknowledge and give credit for good performance and then point out deficiencies in an objective fashion.
- C. have the authority to discipline, but also have some input into the selection of assignments during an inspection.
- D. have the freedom to measure a subordinate's performance without interference.

Answer: B

Explanation:

The most effective managerial style for a supervisor involves recognizing and reinforcing good performance while addressing deficiencies objectively. This approach fosters a balanced relationship between motivation and accountability, encouraging continuous improvement.

* Acknowledgment of Positive Contributions:

* Recognizing good performance boosts morale and reinforces desirable behaviors.

* Objective Feedback on Deficiencies:

* Providing constructive criticism in an objective and professional manner helps employees address shortcomings without feeling demoralized.

* Balanced Leadership:

* This style combines positive reinforcement with corrective guidance, maintaining respect and authority.

* A: Freedom to measure performance is necessary, but without recognition and feedback, it is ineffective.

* C: Evaluations should occur regularly, not just annually or semiannually.

* D: While authority and input are important, they do not directly address day-to-day managerial effectiveness.

Key Elements of Effective Supervisory Style: Why Other Options Are Incorrect: ASIS CPP References:

* Domain 9: Business Principles and Practices Covers leadership and management strategies for effective supervision.
