Microsoft Power Platform Developer Sample Questions (Q319-Q324):

NEW QUESTION # 319

You work for a staffing company that helps employees fill temporary jobs. Available temporary jobs are categorized and listed on a secure area of the company's website.

The company wants to eliminate manual work that relates to job and candidate management. The company plans to invite employers with available jobs and job candidates to view jobs by sending personalized invitations. The company identifies the following requirements:

Human resources team members from the staffing company must be able to access the jobs listing and post available positions.

Employers seeking temporary employees must also be able to access the jobs listing and post available positions.

Approved job candidates must be notified about new positions for which they are qualified.

Approved job candidate must have an option to accept a job assignment directly from a notification.

You need to perform a gap analysis against the features and capabilities of the Power Platform

Which features should you implement? To answer, select the appropriate options in the answer area.

NOTE: Each correct selection is worth one point.

NEW QUESTION # 320

Note: This question is part of a series of questions that present the same scenario. Each question in the series contains a unique solution that might meet the stated goals. Some question sets might have more than one correct solution, while others might not have a correct solution.

After you answer a question in this section, you will NOT be able to return to it. As a result, these questions will not appear in the review screen.

A Common Data Service (CDS) environment has two custom entities named Building code and Work item.

Building code has a code date custom field and Work item has an elapsed time custom field. Construction workers use a consolidated custom form with data from both entities to fill in their daily work items.

A JavaScript library is used with these custom entities and fields to apply complex logic.

You need to ensure that the JavaScript library continues to function as originally designed if other developers expand the environment.

Solution: In form properties of the consolidated form, add the JavaScript library in the events tab and add the two custom fields to the dependent fields section of the non-event dependencies tab.

Does the solution meet the goal?

- A. Yes
- B. No

Answer: B

Explanation:

Explanation

Instead, in the JavaScript library, add Building code with Code date and Work item with Elapsed time in the dependencies tab.

NEW QUESTION # 321

A JavaScript function on a Contact form alerts users to what they need to type, as shown in the JavaScript Code exhibit. (Click the JavaScript Code tab.)

□ The Business Phone field has the OnChange event handler defined as shown in the Event Handler exhibit.
(Click the Event Handler tab.)

□ Users report that there is incorrect wording on the Contact page, as shown in the Contact exhibit. (Click the Contact tab.)

□ You need to determine what happens when a user modifies the business phone of a contact record.

For each of the following statements, select Yes if the statement is true. Otherwise, select No.

NOTE: Each correct selection is worth one point.

Answer:

Explanation:

Explanation

Box 1: Yes

setNotification displays an error message for the control to indicate that data isn't valid. When this method is used, a red "X" icon appears next to the control. On Dynamics 365 mobile clients, tapping on the icon will display the message.

Syntax: formContext.getControl(arg).setNotification(message,uniqueId);

Box 2: No

Box 3: Yes

setFormNotification displays form level notifications. You can display any number of notifications and they will be displayed until they are removed using clearFormNotification.

Syntax: formContext.ui.setFormNotification(message, level, uniqueId);

Box 4: No

NEW QUESTION # 322

You have two tables, account and contact, with a parent-child relationship. Records in the account table can be created in the UI or from an external system integrated with Dataverse by using an Azure Function.

When a user creates a record in the account table, a default record in the contact table must be created automatically.

You need to implement a process to create the contact records.

Solution: Create a custom API bound to the account table that uses a plug-in. Use the Organization service to create the contact record.

Does the solution meet the goal?

- A. Yes
- B. No

Answer: B

NEW QUESTION # 323

You are examining code written by another developer that is not functioning correctly. There are no other JavaScript or business rules in use on the form.

This code is properly registered to the OnChange event of the telephone1 field on an account entity form. The main operation is to update the primary contact's phone number when the account phone number changes. The primary contact field is a lookup. (Line numbers are included for reference only.)

For each of the following statements, select Yes if the statement is true. Otherwise, select No.

NOTE: Each correct selection is worth one point.
