NEW QUESTION # 469

Note: The question is included in a number of questions that depicts the identical set-up.

However, every question has a distinctive result. Establish if the solution satisfies the requirements.

Your company has an Azure Active Directory (Azure AD) environment. Users occasionally connect to Azure AD via the Internet.

You have been tasked with making sure that users who connect to Azure AD via the internet from an unidentified IP address, are automatically encouraged to change passwords.

Solution: You configure the use of Azure AD Privileged Identity Management.

Does the solution meet the goal?

- A. Yes
- B. No

Answer: B

Explanation:

Privileged Identity Management (PIM) is a service in Azure Active Directory (Azure AD) that enables you to manage, control, and monitor access to important resources in your organization.

These resources include resources in Azure AD, Azure, and other Microsoft Online Services such as Microsoft 365 or Microsoft

Intune.

NEW QUESTION # 470

Note: The question is included in a number of questions that depicts the identical set-up.

However, every question has a distinctive result. Establish if the solution satisfies the requirements.

Your company's infrastructure includes a number of business units that each need a large number of various Azure resources for everyday operation.

The resources required by each business unit are identical.

You are required to sanction a strategy to create Azure resources automatically.

Solution: You recommend that management groups be included in the strategy.

Does the solution meet the goal?

- A. Yes
- B. No

Answer: B

Explanation:

To meet these challenges, you can automate deployments and use the practice of infrastructure as code. In code, you define the infrastructure that needs to be deployed. The infrastructure code becomes part of your project. Just like application code, you store the infrastructure code in a source repository and version it. Any one on your team can run the code and deploy similar environments.
