Veeam Certified Engineer v12 Sample Questions (Q171-Q176):

NEW QUESTION # 171

Which Veeam replication failover function ensures that changes made during a failover are copied to the original production VM?

- A. Undo fallback
- B. Fallback
- C. Undo failover
- D. Permanent failover

Answer: B

Explanation:

In Veeam replication, the function that ensures changes made during a failover are copied back to the original production VM is Fallback. This process involves reversing the replication direction after a failover, ensuring that any changes made while running on the replica are synchronized back to the original VM. NEW QUESTION # 173

Veem Backup & Replication is currently configured to back up different workloads: Windows VMs on vSphere and Linux VMs on vSphere. A secondary copy of all the backups including transaction logs must be created. Which of the following backup copy job configurations is the simplest?

- A. Two "immediate copy" backup copy jobs
- B. Two "periodic copy" backup copy jobs
- C. A single "immediate copy" backup copy job
- D. A single "periodic copy" backup copy job

Answer: C

Explanation:

Explanation

According to the Veeam Backup & Replication best practice guide¹, a new copy job mode was added called immediate copy. This mode immediately starts the backup copy job as soon as restore points appear in the repository. It also provides the ability to copy SQL and Oracle log backups which is not possible with traditional periodic backup copy².

Therefore, if you want to create a secondary copy of all the backups including transaction logs, you should use an immediate copy backup copy job. The simplest configuration would be a single immediate copy backup copy job for all workloads (option B)

NEW QUESTION # 174

A backup of a Windows VM running on a Hyper-V Cluster has been created. In which scenario can the Quick Rollback option be used during a Full VM Restore of the VM?

- A. Migration of VM to VMware host in the same data center
- B. Migration of VM to Hyper-V host in a different data center
- C. Issues caused by a Windows update
- D. Issues caused by storage data corruption

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 175

A NAS backup job has been configured within Veeam Backup & Replication, and is completing successfully, but restore operations have been failing for the last few days.

What is causing the failure?

- A. The cache repository assigned for this file share is unavailable for restore operations
- B. The credentials added to the share are not allowed read-write access to the share, directories or files
- C. The server was added by using an IQN alias which is unable to be resolved
- D. The backup repository is sealed

Answer: B
