Cisco Certified Network Associate Exam Sample Questions (Q1282-Q1287):

NEW QUESTION # 1282

Refer to the exhibit.

If R1 sends traffic to 192.168.101.45 the traffic is sent through which interface?

- A. FastEthernet1/1
- B. FastEthernet0/1
- C. FastEthernet1/0
- D. FastEthernet0/0

Answer: A

NEW QUESTION # 1283

Refer to the exhibit. How will router R1 handle packets destined to 192.168.64.22?

- A. It will use the route with the highest AD and highest destination IP.
- B. It will route the packets to 10.1.1.2.
- C. It will use the static route to 10.1.1.1.
- D. It will drop the packets.

Answer: C

Explanation:

The static route to 192.168.64.0/18 via 10.1.1.1 has the lowest administrative distance (1), so R1 will use this route for packets destined to 192.168.64.22.

NEW QUESTION # 1284

Refer to the exhibit. Local access for R4 must be established and these requirements must be met:

- * Only Telnet access is allowed.
- * The enable password must be stored securely.
- * The enable password must be applied in plain text.
- * Full access to R4 must be permitted upon successful login.

- A.
- B.
- C.
- D.

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 1285

Which command must be configured on R1 to complete the task?

- A. R1(config)#ip route 172.16.2.0 255.255.255.0 192.168.1.5
- B. R1(config)#ip route 172.16.2.0 255.255.255.0 192.168.1.15
- C. R1(config)#ip route 172.16.2.2 255.255.255.248 gi0/1
- D. R1(config)#ip route 172.16.2.2 255.255.255.255 gi0/0

Answer: D

Explanation:

By specifying the outgoing interface and not the next hop IP address, the Management devices will be able to ping the new server, but not the default gateway of the server.

NEW QUESTION # 1286

How do generative models support network design testing?

- A. They manage user access control lists.
- B. They deploy network firmware updates.
- C. They create synthetic network configurations.
- D. They compute optimal data storage solutions.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Generative models are a type of machine learning model designed to generate new data based on patterns observed in training data. In the context of network design and testing, these models can create synthetic network configurations that simulate real-world network scenarios. This capability supports testing, optimization, and planning of network designs in several ways:

Simulating Complex Scenarios:

- Generative models can produce synthetic network topologies and configurations to mimic various network conditions, such as varying traffic loads, failure scenarios, or security breaches.

Testing Without Real Networks:

- Engineers can test network designs or configurations in a virtual environment without needing physical devices or actual deployment, saving time and resources.

Identifying Weaknesses:

- By generating diverse scenarios, generative models can help identify potential bottlenecks, misconfigurations, or vulnerabilities in a network design before real deployment.

Enhancing Scalability Testing:

- These models can create scaled-up versions of network configurations to test how a network performs under higher loads or expanded infrastructure.
