NEW QUESTION # 83

Which one of the following represents the three elements (oxygen, heat and fuel) to interact in order for the fire to exist?

- A. The Fire Technology
- B. The Fire Hexagon
- C. The Fire Triangle
- D. The Fire Class

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 84

Which type of Fire Detection Device is recommended for protecting a Data Center?

- A. None of the above
- B. Flame detector
- C. Smoke detector
- D. Heat detector

Answer: C

Explanation:

According to the CDCP® Preparation Guide, smoke detectors are the most common type of fire detection devices used in data centers, as they can detect a fire in its early stages and provide early warning to the occupants and authorities. Smoke detectors can be either spot-type or air-aspirating, depending on the design and goals of the data center. Spot-type detectors are inexpensive and simple, but may cause activation delay and false alarms. Air-aspirating detectors are more sensitive and reliable, but may require more maintenance and installation costs. Both types of detectors should be installed in accordance with the relevant standards and codes, such as NFPA 72 and EN 54.
