Which of the following is true regarding confidentiality in a group counseling setting? The group leader(s) should

- A. obtain consultation about any potential breach of confidentiality.
- B. address the issue of confidentiality in a pre-group screening session.
- C. assure the members that confidentiality will be respected by other group members.

Answer: B

Explanation:

It is essential for group leaders to address the issue of confidentiality during pre-group screening sessions so that all members understand the expectation and limits of confidentiality before joining. Unlike individual counseling, confidentiality cannot be absolutely guaranteed in groups because members are not legally bound to maintain it, so the topic must be discussed openly and thoroughly before the group begins.
