NEW QUESTION # 220

When there is a misstatement of age by an applicant for a disability income policy:

- A. Any amount payable will be the amount of coverage the premium would have purchased at the insured's correct age
- B. The company will cancel the policy immediately upon discovery of the misstatement of age
- C. The insurer is not liable for any claims made during the period before correction of the insured's age
- D. The policy will be void from its inception because of the insured's misrepresentation

Answer: A

Explanation:

The misstatement of age provision adjusts benefits to reflect the correct age at which premiums should have been paid. The insurer does not void or cancel the policy; instead, it adjusts the coverage to the amount the paid premium would have purchased at the correct age.

Exact Extract (Virginia Uniform Policy Provisions): "In the event of misstatement of age, benefits payable under the policy shall be adjusted to the amount the premium would have purchased at the correct age." Reference (Virginia Documents / Study Guide):

- Code of Virginia §38.2-3514 (Uniform individual accident and sickness policy provisions - Misstatement of age)

NEW QUESTION # 221

- A. Approve the payment of a claim
- B. Replace a policy without notifying the insurer
- C. Solicit, receive and forward applications to the insurer

- D. Reinstate an insurance contract after the expiration date

Answer: C

Exact extract: "An agent is authorized to solicit, receive, and forward applications to the insurer but has no power to approve claims or reinstate policies." Reference:

NEW QUESTION # 222

Which is a restorative dental procedure?

- A. A root canal
- B. An extraction
- C. A filling
- D. The fitting of dentures

Answer: C

Explanation:

A restorative dental procedure refers to treatments that restore the function and integrity of a tooth, typically after damage or decay. A filling is a common restorative procedure, where the dentist repairs a cavity. An extraction removes a tooth, while a root canal treats infection within the tooth, and fitting dentures replaces missing teeth, all of which are not categorized as restorative procedures but are considered reparative or replacement treatments.

NEW QUESTION # 223

Employer-paid premiums for qualified long-term care insurance are:

- A. Reimbursed by the employee
- B. Deductible as a business expense
- C. Included in an employee's gross income
- D. Deductible on an employee's federal income tax return

Answer: B

Explanation:

Premiums paid by employers for qualified long-term care insurance are tax-deductible as a business expense. For employees, the value of employer-paid premiums is excluded from gross income. This aligns with federal tax treatment and is covered in Virginia's insurance exam outline.

Exact Extract (Virginia Insurance Study Guide): "Employer contributions to qualified long-term care insurance premiums are deductible to the employer as a business expense and not taxable to the employee." Reference (Virginia Documents / Study Guide):
- Virginia Life & Health Insurance Examination Outline, Section 6.2 Tax treatment of long-term care insurance

NEW QUESTION # 224

Which policy provision allows an employee to change from group coverage to an individual life insurance policy?

- A. Nonforfeiture
- B. Assignment
- C. Incontestability
- D. Conversion

Answer: D

Explanation:

Virginia Code § 38.2-3330 requires group life insurance policies to include a conversion provision, allowing an employee to convert group coverage to an individual policy without evidence of insurability, typically within 31 days after termination of employment or group eligibility. Option B (conversion) directly describes this right, ensuring continued protection. Option A (nonforfeiture) applies to cash value options (e.g., reduced paid-up insurance) in individual policies, not group-to-individual transitions. Option C

(assignment) transfers policy ownership, unrelated to conversion. Option D (incontestability) limits the insurer's ability to deny claims after a period (e.g., 2 years), not a conversion mechanism. The study guide likely highlights conversion as a key group life feature, with scenarios like an employee leaving a job and converting to a whole life policy, making B the precise answer.
