ITIL 4 Specialist: Create, Deliver and Support Exam Sample Questions (Q65-Q70):

NEW QUESTION # 65

An organization is writing its test strategy in order to define the test levels and test types that are in scope for testing. In the past, the organization has experienced service disruptions after some releases of a particular application. These disruptions were happening because the application caused other applications to generate errors.

Which test level should the organization focus on to address this weakness?

- A. Unit
- B. Integration
- C. Acceptance
- D. System

Answer: B

Explanation:

Integration testing focuses on verifying how different applications and components work together, helping to identify and prevent errors that occur when the new application affects other systems.

NEW QUESTION # 66

Which of the following involves consideration of the skills and availability of both internal and external resources?

- A. Triage prioritization
- B. Build vs buy
- C. Swarming
- D. Shift-left approach

Answer: B

Explanation:

Build vs buy involves evaluating the skills and availability of both internal and external resources to decide whether to develop a solution in-house or acquire it from an external provider.

NEW QUESTION # 67

During a service design workshop, a development team aims to tailor their solutions to the needs and circumstances of the target users. What is the BEST approach for the team to achieve this?

- A. Interview customers about their preferences
- B. Create realistic user personas based on the gathered user data
- C. Involve many users from every target group in all steps of the design
- D. Use the latest technology capabilities to improve the look and feel of the designed solution

Answer: B

Explanation:

The best approach is to create realistic user personas based on the gathered user data (B). The ITIL 4 Specialist: Create, Deliver and Support documentation (Section 3.1.3) states: "User personas, developed from data-driven insights, provide a focused representation of target users, enabling tailored design that aligns with their needs and circumstances." This method ensures practicality without overwhelming the process, unlike option A's broad involvement. Option C is a data-gathering step; option D prioritizes technology over user needs. The guide notes: "Personas enhance service design by guiding decisions throughout the value stream." Reference: ITIL 4 Specialist: Create, Deliver and Support, Section 3.1.3 - User Personas in Service Design.

NEW QUESTION # 68

Which is an example of using a 'shift-left' approach to optimize password resets?

- A. Encourage users to remember or safely record their passwords to reduce the number of password resets
- B. Train service desk agents to categorize password resets as service requests
- C. Automatically assign a high priority to password reset requests to resolve them faster
- D. Allow users to reset their own passwords using an automated tool

Answer: D

Explanation:

Allowing users to reset their own passwords using an automated tool moves support closer to the user, which is a direct application of the shift-left approach, improving speed and efficiency.

NEW QUESTION # 69

When verifying that an incident has been resolved, which is an example of value as perceived by a user?

- A. An incident resolved within the target SLA time, enabling efficient use of service desk resources
- B. An accurate and complete incident record, enabling subsequent trend analysis of incidents
- C. A better understanding of a complex networking scenario, enabling the creation of a new knowledge article
- D. A swift restoration of a point of sale system, enabling customers to be served with minimal disruption

Answer: D

Explanation:

From the user's perspective, swift restoration of critical services like a point of sale system provides immediate value by minimizing disruption and allowing normal operations to continue.
