Peoplecert MSP Practitioner, 5th edition Exam Sample Questions (Q82-Q87):

NEW QUESTION # 82

Which of the following is Not a core element of successful communication?

- A. Stakeholder identification and analysis
- B. Message Clarity and consistency
- C. Identifying correct people to communicate
- D. Feedback Collection system

Answer: C

Explanation:

While identifying the correct people to communicate with is important, MSP does not list it as one of the four core elements of successful communication.

The MSP Practitioner outlines the four core elements as:

- a) Stakeholder identification and analysis
- b) Message Clarity and consistency
- c) Effective system of message delivery
- d) Feedback Collection system

These elements ensure messages are targeted, clear, consistently delivered, and that feedback is captured to improve communication.

Misidentifying core communication elements can weaken engagement efforts, so focusing on these pillars supports stronger communication outcomes throughout the programme lifecycle.

NEW QUESTION # 83

Who produces Business Case?

- A. SRO
- B. Sponsoring Group
- C. BCM
- D. Programme Manager

Answer: D

Explanation:

The Programme Manager is responsible for producing the Business Case. This document outlines the justification for the programme, including costs, benefits, risks, and options. The Programme Manager prepares the Business Case to ensure it is comprehensive, realistic, and aligned with the programme's objectives.

The MSP Practitioner notes: "Programme manager prepares it as he is responsible for it," emphasizing the role's responsibility to articulate the strategic rationale and provide a sound basis for decision-making. The Business Case is then reviewed and approved by the SRO and other governance bodies.

The Programme Manager collaborates with other roles such as the Business Change Manager and SRO to ensure all aspects of the Business Case are valid and supported. This role is pivotal in maintaining the integrity and credibility of the programme justification throughout its lifecycle.
