Adobe Commerce Developer Expert Sample Questions (Q34-Q39):

NEW QUESTION # 34

A Developer needs to set up a message queue topic in Adobe Commerce to asynchronously handle order processing. Which XML file should the Developer use to configure this?

- A. queue_consumer.xml
- B. queue_topology.xml
- C. communication.xml

Answer: C

Explanation:

The communication.xml file is used to define message queue topics and link publishers with subscribers. This is required when setting up asynchronous handling for events such as order processing.

B (queue_topology.xml): Defines queue and exchange structure.

C (queue_consumer.xml): Defines consumers for queues but does not declare topics.

A is correct: communication.xml is the right file for defining topics.

Reference:

Adobe Commerce DevDocs - communication.xml reference

In Adobe Commerce's Message Queue Framework (MQF), several XML configuration files are used, each with a specific purpose:

communication.xml # Defines message queue topics and the messages they carry.

Topics represent logical channels that connect publishers and consumers.

Example: An order placement event may publish a message to a topic like order.processing.

queue_topology.xml # Defines the relationship between topics and queues.

Maps a topic to one or more queues.

Specifies routing and exchange bindings.

queue_consumer.xml # Defines consumers that process messages from queues.

Each consumer is a PHP class responsible for handling a message pulled from a queue.

Since the question specifically asks about setting up a topic (not the routing or consumer), the correct configuration file is communication.xml.

Official Documentation Extracts:

"The communication.xml file defines the messages and topics in the message queue framework." - Adobe Commerce DevDocs:

Message queues configuration

"Use queue_topology.xml to bind topics to queues and define exchanges." - Message Queues: Topology configuration

"Consumers are defined in queue_consumer.xml. A consumer listens to a queue and processes incoming messages." - Message Queues: Consumer configuration

Answer: C

NEW QUESTION # 37

A Developer is tasked with creating a new index. The custom indexer is not automatically updating the product data. How should the Developer solve this issue?

- A. Implement custom database triggers.
- B. Use an event observer to monitor data changes.
- C. Use the mview to allow tracking database changes.

Answer: C

Explanation:

Magento uses the materialized view (mview) system to track database changes and trigger automatic updates to indexers. B (mview) is correct because it enables Magento to automatically detect data changes and update indexers incrementally.

A (observer) is not reliable for large indexing operations and not the recommended method.

C (database triggers) are discouraged and not used in Magento's indexing mechanism.

NEW QUESTION # 38

A Developer needs to replicate a recent issue that occurred in the staging environment so it can be tested locally. The Developer decides to dump the staging database and import it into the local setup.

Which command should the Developer use to do this?

- A. vendor/bin/ece-tools db-snapshot
- B. vendor/bin/ece-tools db-dump
- C. magento-cloud snapshot:db-dump

Answer: B

Explanation:

The correct way to dump a database from an Adobe Commerce Cloud environment is with the vendor/bin/ece-tools db-dump command.

A (db-snapshot) is not a valid ece-tools command.

B is incorrect: magento-cloud snapshot commands are for managing whole environment snapshots, not direct DB dumps.
