IIA Essentials of Internal Auditing Sample Questions (Q357-Q362):

NEW QUESTION # 357

Which of the following is a role internal auditors should undertake related to risk management?

- A. Impose risk management processes
- B. Implement risk responses on management's behalf
- C. Evaluate the reporting of key risks
- D. Set the risk appetite

Answer: C

Explanation:

Internal auditors play a crucial role in evaluating the effectiveness of an organization's risk management processes. This includes assessing how well key risks are reported within the organization, whether through formal risk reporting mechanisms or less formal communications. Internal auditors review the processes by which these risks are identified, assessed, and managed, and they ensure that the information about these risks is accurately communicated to relevant stakeholders, including senior management and the board.
