Cloudera CDP Data Engineer - Certification Exam Sample Questions (Q62-Q67):

NEW QUESTION # 62
You need to design your Airflow DAG for data quality checks to be easily monitored and visualized. How can you achieve this?

- A. All of the above
- B. Utilize Airflow XCom to share the outcome of the checks (success/failurE. with downstream tasks for further processing.
- C. Leverage Airflow's built-in metrics and monitoring features like the Airflow web UI to track check execution and results.
- D. Implement custom logic to send detailed logs about the check results to external monitoring tools.

Answer: B,C,D

Explanation:
All options mentioned in D can be valuable for troubleshooting errors in data quality checks: Airflow UI: Task details page might display error messages or logs specific to the check. Airflow Logs: Scheduler and worker logs might provide additional context about the error and its origin. Custom Script Inspection: Examining the custom Python script used for the check can reveal potential errors within the logic itself.

NEW QUESTION # 63
Due to regulatory requirements, you need to permanently delete specific sensitive records from an Iceberg table. Which of the following techniques would be most appropriate?

- A. Modify the data files directly using low-level tools to overwrite the sensitive data.
- B. Use Iceberg's EXPIRE SNAPSHOTS procedure to remove snapshots containing the sensitive data.
- C. Issue a standard Iceberg DELETE query, as deleted data will automatically be expunged from the table.
- D. Implement a custom process, leveraging Iceberg's row-level updates to delete the sensitive records and then using file-level operations to physically remove the data.

Answer: D

Explanation:
Iceberg doesn't have a built-in "permanent delete" feature. You'll need a carefully designed process combining row-level updates with the ability to rewrite data files to comply with regulations.

NEW QUESTION # 64
You need to filter a Spark DataFrame based on multiple conditions. How can you achieve this efficiently and concisely?

- A. Leverage chained filter() calls with logical operators like AND and OR
- B. Use multiple filter() calls with individual conditions
- C. Implement custom filtering logic using loops and conditional statements
- D. Use Spark SQL's WHERE clause with a complex expression

Answer: A

Explanation:
While using multiple independent filter() calls A works, it can be less readable. Chaining filter() calls B with logical operators like & (AND. and I (OR) offers a concise and efficient way to filter based on multiple conditions. Option C is inefficient and error-prone, while D might be suitable for complex queries but is less versatile for simpler filtering operations.

NEW QUESTION # 65
For iterative machine learning algorithms in Spark, which caching level minimizes the trade-off between computation time and storage efficiency?

- A. MEMORY AND DISK SER
- B. MEMORY ONLY SER
- C. MEMORY ONLY
- D. DISK ONLY

Answer: B

Explanation:
MEMORY_ONLY_SER (serialize data in memory) minimizes the trade-off between computation time and storage efficiency for iterative machine learning algorithms. It stores the data in a serialized form in memory, reducing the space it occupies compared to the deserialized form (MEMORY ONLY), while still avoiding the disk I/O overhead associated with DISK ONLY or MEMORY AND DISK SER. This level strikes a balance by using less memory than MEMORY_ONLY and being faster than options that involve disk storage.

NEW QUESTION # 66
What is the primary purpose of the Airflow Scheduler in Apache Airflow?

- A. To monitor the state of tasks and trigger them based on their dependencies

- B. To provide a user interface for monitoring and managing DAGs
- C. To distribute tasks across workers for execution
- D. To execute the code for each task in a DAG

Answer: A

Explanation:
The Airflow Scheduler monitors all tasks and DAGs, then triggers the task instances whose dependencies have been met. Its primary role is not to execute task code (handled by the Executor) or distribute tasks (also a role of the Executor), nor is it to provide a UI (handled by the Webserver).
