F5 BIG-IP Administration Data Plane Configuration Sample Questions (Q32-Q37):

NEW QUESTION # 32
Some users who connect to a busy Virtual Server have connections reset by the BIG-IP system. Pool member resources are NOT a factor.
What is a possible cause?

- A. Rewrite profile not configured
- B. Connection Limit is set too low
- C. Connection Rate Limit is set too high
- D. Server SSL profile not reconfigured

Answer: B

Explanation:
When the connection limit is reached, BIG-IP resets new connections, even if pool members are healthy.

NEW QUESTION # 33
Users are unable to reach an application. The Virtual Server shows a red diamond status.
What is the cause?

- A. Virtual Server disabled
- B. Pool members disabled
- C. HTTPS traffic sent to HTTP VS
- D. All pool members are down

Answer: D

Explanation:
A red diamond indicates that the Virtual Server is enabled but unavailable, typically due to all pool members being down.

NEW QUESTION # 34
Due to a change in application requirements, a BIG-IP Administrator needs to modify the configuration of a Virtual Server to include a Fallback Persistence Profile.
Which persistence profile type should the BIG-IP Administrator use?

- A. Source Address Affinity
- B. Hash
- C. SSL
- D. Universal

Answer: A

Explanation:
Fallback persistence is used when the primary persistence method fails. Source Address Affinity is a Layer 4 persistence method and is fully supported as a fallback option for most virtual server types.

NEW QUESTION # 35
Which type of Virtual Server requires the use of a FastL4 profile?

- A. Stateless
- B. Standard
- C. Performance (HTTP)
- D. Performance (Layer 4)

Answer: D

Explanation:
Performance (Layer 4) virtual servers rely on FastL4 profiles for high-speed Layer 4 traffic handling.

NEW QUESTION # 36
A BIG-IP Administrator uses backend servers to host multiple services per server. There are multiple virtual servers and pools defined, referencing the same backend servers.
Which load balancing algorithm is most appropriate to have an equal number of connections on each backend server? (Choose one answer)

- A. Predictive (node)
- B. Least Connections (node)
- C. Least Connections (member)
- D. Predictive (member)

Answer: B

Explanation:
In this scenario, each backend node (server) hosts multiple services and is referenced by multiple pools and virtual servers. The goal is to ensure an equal number of total connections per backend server, regardless of how many pool members (services/ports) exist on that server.
According to the BIG-IP Administration: Data Plane Configuration documentation:
Least Connections (node) tracks the total number of active connections to a node across all pool members and services.
This algorithm ensures load distribution is balanced at the server level, not just at the individual service (member) level.
It is specifically recommended when:
Multiple pool members exist on the same backend server
Multiple virtual servers reference the same backend servers
Why the other options are incorrect:
B . Predictive (member)
Predictive algorithms are advanced and traffic-pattern based, but they operate at the member level and do not guarantee equal connections per server.
C . Least Connections (member)
This balances connections per pool member, which can overload a server hosting multiple members while still appearing "balanced" per member.
D . Predictive (node)
Although node-aware, predictive algorithms are less deterministic and not the best choice when strict equality of connections is required.
Correct Resolution:
Using Least Connections (node) ensures that each backend server carries an equal connection load across all services and pools.
