Which of the following applies to Edit Access in SAP Ariba Contract Compliance? Note: There are 3 correct answers to this question.

- A. Edit access determines who can approve the contract.
- B. Only users or groups with edit access can change contract terms.
- C. Edit access is configured separately from release access
- D. You must be a contract approver to have edit access.
- E. Edit access is available in both Release and No Release order contracts.

答案: B,C,E

解題說明:

* In both Release Order Contracts and No Release Order Contracts, the system supports configuring Edit Access via the contract request settings. SAP Learning+1 Incorrect Options:

* C. You must be a contract approver to have edit access.

* This is not accurate. A user having Edit Access does not necessarily need to be a contract approver. Edit permissions are separate from approval authority. SAP Learning+1

* D. Edit access determines who can approve the contract.

* Not correct. Edit Access only allows users to modify the contract. Approval authority is managed separately through approval rules and workflows. SAP Learning+1 Conclusion (the three correct answers):

* A. Only users or groups with edit access can change contract terms.

* B. Edit access is configured separately from release access.

* E. Edit access is available in both Release and No Release order contracts.

Explanation:

Solution:

From the content on learning.sap.com regarding Edit Access in SAP Ariba Contract Compliance, these are the accurate statements (three correct answers):

Correct answers:

* Only users or groups with edit access can change contract terms.

* As described in Finalizing Contract Request Settings, only those users or groups explicitly given Edit Access have the permission to make changes to contract terms. SAP Learning

* B. Edit access is configured separately from release access.

* The Access Control options allow you to independently manage both Release Access and Edit Access, meaning they are separate configurations. SAP Learning
