NEW QUESTION # 428

In an IaaS cloud environment, which of the following outlines the duties of the CSP and cloud consumer?

- A. Shared responsibility
- B. Statement of work
- C. Standard operating procedures
- D. Self-service
- E. Hybrid model

Answer: A

Explanation:

In an IaaS (Infrastructure as a Service) cloud environment, the shared responsibility model outlines the division of duties between the Cloud Service Provider (CSP) and the cloud consumer. The CSP typically manages the underlying infrastructure, including the physical hardware, networking, and virtualization layer, while the cloud consumer is responsible for managing the operating system, applications, and data. This model helps define the specific roles and security responsibilities for both parties.
